EIGHT NATIONS IN FAVOR PEACE PLAN

Governments Express Willingness to Enter an Agreement.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION

Secretary Bryan Signalizes the Day Commemorative of the Country's Hero Dead—No Adverse Replies Received.

Washington, May 30.—Secretary Bryan signalized the day commemoraitv of the country's hero dead by announcing that eight nations have responded favorably to his peace plan asking that suggestions be submitted in regard to details. The nations in the order in which they have accepted are Italy, Great Britain, France, Brazil, Sweden, Norway, Peru and Russia.

Secretary Bryan said that no nation, to whom his peace plan was submitted, had replied adversely, although some had asked more time for consideration.

To each of the governments expressing a willingness to enter into the agreement, a tentative statement has been submitted embodying details suggested by the President. The Secretary pointing out that this statement was submitted for consideration, with no intention of insistence upon any particular detail, declined to make public its contents.

My Bryan discussed the progress of his plan, in the following statement:

"It will be remembered that about a month ago a plan was, by the President's direction, submitted to all the governments having representatives here, the plan being in substance as follows:

"First, that the United States is prepared to enter into an agreement with each and every country severally, providing for the investigation of all disputes of every character and nature by an international commission, the contracting parties agreeing not to declare war or begin hostilities until such investigation is made and report submitted.

"Second, the investigation to be conducted as a matter of course, upon the initiative of the commission, without the formality of a request from either party.

"Third, the report to be submitted within a given time, the time to be agreed upon.

"Fourth, The parties to reserve the right to act independently on the subject matter in dispute, after the report is submitted.

"The composition of the commission was a matter of detail to be agreed upon by the contracting parties; the time, also, in which the report should be submitted was a matter of detail to be agreed upon by the contracting parties.

"Eight nations have, up to this time, responded favorably, some endrosing the principle and asking that suggestions be submitted in regard to the details, others replying that the proposition is received sympathetically and expressing a willingness to consider details.. The nations, in the order in which they have accepted, are: Italy, Great Britain, France, Brazil, Sweden, Norway, Peru and Russia.

"To those expressing a willingness to confer in regard to the details, a tentative statement has been submitted, embodying details suggested by the President; this statement being submitted for consideration, however, with no intention of insisting on any particular detail. The exact phraseology of the agreements may not be the same in all cases. If the principle is endorsed, the government is willing to confer with open mind as to minor points."

Speaking of the reception his plan has received, Mr. Bryan observed that within the past two months three arbitration treaties have been renewed for a period of five years. The treaties renewed are with France, Italy and Spain and President Wilson has announced his willingness to renew similar conventions with Great Britain, Japan, Norway, Sweden and Portugal.

AT LIBERTY AGAIN

Militant Suffragette Leader Released From Prison

London, May 30.—Emmeline Pankhurst, militant suffragette leader, was again released from Holloway jail this evening. She was removed to a friend's house. Mrs. Pankhurst started a "hunger strike" as soon as she was reincarcerated on May 26th, after enjoying a temporary release on account of her "hunger strike" a month ago.

Mrs. Pankhurst is being closely guarded by the police at the home of her friend. They report that she is not as ill as at the time of her former release from prison, but officials of the Women's Social and Political Union declare she is at the point of death. No visitors are permitted to see Mrs. Pankhurst.

AMBASSADOR RECEIVED

Walter H. Page Is Formally Recognized at the Court of St. James

London, May 30.—Walter Hines Page, United States ambassador to the Court of St. James, was received today by King George to whom he presented his letter of credence.

Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, presented the new ambassador. Then Mr. Page went through the formality of being presented to the King and Queen, the members of the embassy staff, after the royal audience Ambassador Page called on Paul Cambon, the French ambassador and dean of the diplomatic corps.

MAINE [illegible]MENT DEDICATED

Secretary of Navy Daniels Pays Tribute to Heroism of Crew of Fated Battleship—Patriotism Stimulated.

New York, May 30.—"In the whole range of patriotic story, as it comes to us in tales of the sea, there is no finer illustration of heroism than that exhibited at the time of the blowing up of the Maine."

This was the tribute paid by Secretary Daniels to the heroes of the battleship Maine, blown up in the harbor of Havana, Cuba, on the night of February 15th, 1898, in an address here today. The occasion was the dedication of the National Maine monument at the Columbus Circle entrance to Central Park.

"Why is it," Secretary Daniels asked, 'that we seldom see a monument erected to a doctor, a teacher, a preacher, or a statesman, except the statesman who served in time of war, while genius and art are brought under contribution to give us stately figures in branze of soldiers and sailors? I have asked that question not a few times of myself and of others. The common answers are that the enthusiasm and the imagination are kindled by the bearings of men in arms, that such men are the incarnation of patriotism, or that it is the expression of gratitude to the men who are the defenders of the national honor.

"Either reason would be sufficient to win the appreciation of the people and to make the sailor or soldier the exemplar of ambitious youth. But the real reason for the partiality toward military leaders lies deeper than gratitude or enthusiasm or patriotism. It has been found in the eternal truths to which divinity gave its seal of approval when the Maker of man gave His Son to die for the race.

"The sailors on the Maine, in Havana harbor, who were rudely disturbed from their slumber only to be hurried into what we mistakenly call eternal sleep, were at their places of duty. They had surrendered what is most prized by other men; they had consecrated their lives to the defense of the nation and its homes, they were the guardians of the lives and prosperity of Americans at home and abroad. How beautiful is the life wedded to duty! How glorious is the spirit of the sailor who gives up all to stand watch for his race! Unafraid, he is the man on the tower answering when asked, 'Watchman, tell us of the night'."

"I am thrilled," the Secretary continued, "as I see with my mind's eye that picture of a scene in the darkness of that dreadful night. Of Private William Anthony saluting Capt. Sigsbee and reporting, 'The ship is blown up, and is sinking, sir.' The incident gathers into a focus the Navy's loyalty to the flag. Sigsbee and Anthony are representative and typical—the one an officer of high rank, stumbling up from his cabin through the dark and over the dead to assert his command and snatch order out of the confusion; the other an enlisted man, faithful unto death and performing his duty at the risk of his life itself, under circumstances so unusual that failure to do so would never be considered even as a breach.

"If the navy is the strong arm of the government, the protector of our homes and the defender of the Treasury," continued the Secretary, "it is because of the harmonious and effective working together of these two types. In this meeting on the deck of the sinking Maine, we have them brought together in a moment of glory, in an incident of heroism that has permanently lodged itself in history."

"We speak of the heroes of the Maine as if they were dead," said Secretary Daniels in conclusion, "but ought we not to feel that they live always by their sacrifices, stimulating us to patriotic achievement?"

The Dedication.

New York, May 30.—In memory of the 267 officers and men who were lost with the battleship Maine, in Havana harbor, fifteen years ago, the National Maine monument was dedilated here today. From a dozen American warships, units of the Atlantic fleet at anchor in the Hudson river, a salute of 252 guns echoed from the Palisades, as the veil was swept aside that revealed the country's tribute—a pylon forty feet high, that stands in Central Park overlooking Columbus Circle.

Noted citizens spoke words of praise for the dead heroes of the war with Spain and for those who live; former President Taft, the Secretary of the Navy, the Governors of Maine and New York, representatives of the Cuban republic, and others, took part in the exercises.

A military parade along Fifth avenue preceded the ceremonies at the monument.

Headed by Rear Admiral Winslow, the grand marshal, 5,000 soldiers and sailors, including the veterans of two wars, marched through a lane formed by many thousands of holiday sightseers. American infantry, artillery, navy yard marines, blue jackets from the battleships, State militia, cavalry, Civil and Spanish War veterans, Cuban troopers and sailors from the "Cuba," the Island republic's naval representative, these and others were in the line of march.

The President's Letter.

General James Grant Wilson, who presided at the dedication, read a letter from President Wilson:

"My thoughts will be very much with you, as will, I am sure, the thoughts of the whole country," the President wrote. "All Americans must look back to the tragedy of the Maine with the profoundest sentiments of sorrow for the fine men who then so tragically and unexpectedly lost their lives, and must always feel that to have been one of the turning points of our consciousness of what was involved in the struggle for human liberty."

The Unveiling.

It was late in the afternoon when George Hearst, young son of William Randolph Hearst, a member of the National Maine Monument Committee, unveiled the monument. As the meets guns boomed their tribute, a floral counterpart of the old Maine was released to the Hudson's waters from shore. Around the pylon the crowd sang "America."

Mayor Gaynor accepted the memorial on behalf of the city: Wreaths were placed at the monument's base. One from President Wilson was laid by the Rev. John Chadwick, chaplain on the Maine when the explosion occurred.

Taft's Address.

William Howard Taft in his address characterized the dedication as an enduring witness to three facts:

"The first, of the gratitude that our country feels toward the men who went down on the Maine, in that they gave their lives in her service," he declared. "The second is the birth of a new people and the founding of a new nation through our disinterested aid and sacrifice. The third is the expansion of this nation into a wider sphere of world usefulness and greater responsibility among the nations than ever before in its history."

Referring to Cuba, the speaker declared the island republic is "Our foster child. As she errs in the youth of National life, the United States must bear with her, and aid her," he said adding, "We must hold to a persistent purpose to maintain her as an independent and self-respecting republic.

Material Expansion.

"The wonderful material expansion in the development of this continent between the Atlantic and the Pacific, the enormous increase in population, and the corresponding growth in National power have given us a position among the countries of the world that we must recognize, and that we must take with its corresponding responsibilities, whether we would or no," said the former President.

"The possession of new territory, including the Philippines, thrusts upon the country," Mr. Taft concluded, "new relations with the rest of the world, that we cannot escape. It gives us an Asiatic status, brings us close to China, and doubles our interest in the Pacific. If we would exercise the influence we ought to exercise for good in the world, we must accept responsibility commensurate with our National strength and opportunities for usefulness."

Senor Calderon, Cuban charge d'affaires and president of the Cuban commission, expressed his republic's tribute. Governor Sulzer spoke on behalf of New York State, and William R. Hearst for the committee. Rear Admiral Sigsbee, who was in command when the explosion occurred, recalled the February night in 1989, when the Maine went down.

EXPECTED RULING CREATES INTEREST

Judge Must Construe Law in Roosevelt's Libel Suit

LEGAL EXPERTS INTERESTED

The Colonel Made No Demand for Retraction of Alleged Libelous Editorial by Geo. A. Newett —Michigan Laws

Marquette, Mich., May 30.—Lawyers in attendance on the suit of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newett, charged with libel, are looking forward with great interest to a prospective ruling by Judge Flannigan construing a section of the Michigan laws bearing on libel.

The law was designed to protect newspapers from the consequences of honest mistakes and provided that demand for retraction of a libelous article should be made by the offended party. Colonel Roosevelt made no such demand, it is admitted, and on this point the legal experts are looking for interesting developments. The matter will come up when counsel for Mr. Newett attempts to show that the editor made his charge of drunkenness in good faith and without malice, believing it to be true.

Judge Flannigan will have to rule, assuming that the article was printed maliciously, but in the absence of demand for retraction, whether the alleged bad faith of Mr. Newett may be taken into account in estimating damages.

Colonel Roosevelt spent a quiet day, but he was unable to resist the persistence of veterans who had asked him to address them and compromised by receiving them at the home of George Shiras, his host, where he addressed them at some length.

The blowing of a fog horn throughout the night and during the forenoon, failed to disturb him.

William Loeb, Jr., who was Colonel Roosevelt's secretary while he was President; W. Emelen Roosevelt, his cousin; Frank Tyree and James Sloan probably will be the witnesses tomorrow. Tyree and Sloan were Roosevelt's bodyguards at Washington, and on his campaign trips while he occupied the Presidency.

LONG FAREWELLS.

Vast Throng Gathered to See Final Closing of Astor House.

New York, May 30. — The early morning hours still saw crowds lingering in the rotunda of the old Astor House, regardless of the fact that the famous old downtown hotel had officially sealed its seventy-seven years history at midnight.

At the invitation of the proprietor, the throng helped clear the old black walnut bar of it last drop of Scotch, and still they lingered to gather in dishes and glasses for souvenirs, to sing and make speeches, all in all an exhibition of sentiment such as Broadway seldom witnesses.

It was estimated that over 20,000 persons surged in and out of the building during the day and night. The last person on the register was Francis G. Terrance, steamboat owner, of Pittsburgh. Underneath his name the clerk wrote "Finis."

What was described in 1836 as "the most commanding edifice in America except the Capitol at Washington," will now come down, so that the Broadway subway builders may undermine its site.

GETTYSBURG MEMORIAL DAY

Alabama Man Delivers "Message of a Re-united Country" at Exercises Held on Historic Battle Field

Gettysburg, Pa., May 30.—Standing on historic Gettysburg battle field and bringing "a message of a re-united country," Representative Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, today paid eloquent tribute to the heroism of the men who wore the Blue and the Gray. His was the first address ever delivered by a Southerner at Gettysburg Memorial Day exercises.

"Our colonial fathers from North, South, East and West," Mr. Heflin said, "fought together when they brought this republic into being, defended it together in the way of 1812, and triumphed together when they carried the stars and stripes into the heritage of the Montezumas. The and crucial test of the republic's strength and durability was the combat on the field of battle in the War Between the States."

He added that the question of the right of the State to secede and the right of the union to prevent it, the status of rights and relationship between State and Federal government, "could not be determined in the councils of peace; it had to be settled by the arbitrament of the sword."

"The republic once abounding with conflicting opinions as ta State and Federal rights and powers," he continued, "is today the harmonious household of sovereign States, the home of a brave and happy people. Here we bow with solemn reverence in honor of our nation's dead and pay to their blessed memory the tribute of our united love.

"Heroism never had truer representatives than those who made this battle field immortal. Here the soldier in blue and the soldier in gray read in each other's eyes courage born and convictions, devotion to principle, a willingness to do and die for what they believed was right. Here Union and Confederate soldiers by their daring sacrifice and heroism challenged the admiration of the world. Here Northern valor drew up in battle line the bravest of her brave, the noblest specimens of her patriotic manhood and Southern chivalry marshalled the noblest types of her splendid citizenship.

"Here the brave Union soldier checked the march of the hitherto irresistible Confederate soldier. Here in the red glare of destruction battle fire two mighty lessons were taught; one that the Union should be preserved, and the other that the Union should be ever mindful and considerate of the rights of the States. So the soldiers of the two armies who baptized this soil with their blood did not die in vain; they started the work of cementing the bonds of an everlasting Union.

"I bring to you a message of good will and fellowship from the people of the South. As an evidence of our recognition and appreciation of the valor and heroism of both Union and Confederate soldiers, and as a token of the spirit of fraternal love now permeating the hearts of our people, I bring you floral offerings from the flower gardens of Dixie, one for the grave of the soldier in blue and the other for the grave of the soldier in gray. The sublime valor of the heroes of both armies is the priceless heritage of all."

Of the reunion in July of survivors of the two armies at Gettysburg, Mr. Heflin said, "What a glorious reunion that will be. The angels will smile upon that gathering and the God of our fathers will bless and approve it."

"Let the living join hands and hearts about a common center for the good of the Republic," he concluded. "Let North, South, East and West all work together for the good of all. Here on this battle field, incarnadined with the blood of patriotic North and patriotic South, let us, in the language of Lincoln, resolve that this government shall not perish from the earth."

REMAINS RE-INTERRED

Revolutionary Hero Laid to Rest Beside His Illustrious Son

Lexington, Va., May 30.—A committee of the Virginia Assembly arrived here today from Cumberland Island, Ga., bringing a flag-draped casket containing the remains of General "Light Horse Harry Lee," of revolutionary fame. Escorted by cadets from the Virginia institutions and students from Washington and Lee, the casket was borne by cadet and student pallbearers to Lee mausoleum. There with impressive ceremonies it was re-interred in the crypt beside the body of the revolutionary soldier's distinguished son, General Robert E. Lee.

LOBBY RESOLUTION.

Investigation Will be Referred to Sub-Committee of Five.

Washington, May 30.—Senator Overman, acting chairman of the Senate Judiciary committee, announced today that the "lobby resolution" adopted by the Senate last night would be taken up tomorrow by the entire committee, and that the investigation probably would be turned to a sub-committee of five. Senators Reed and Cummins are almost certain to be of the investigators.

FRENCH CAR WINS AUTOMOBILE RACE

Machines of Many Nations Compete in Third Annual Contest

MANY PRIZES AND TROPHIES

Jules Goux, Driving the Peugeot, Successful Contestant in the Five Hundred-mile Event—No Fatal Accidents Attendant

Indianapolis, May 30.—The United States fell before France here today when Jules Goux, a Frenchman, driving a French car, the Peugeot, won the third annual 500-mile automobile race in 6:31:33.45 at an average speed of 76.59 miles an hour.

No fatal accidents marred the running of the race, although two were seriously injured when the Mason, driven by Jack Tower, upset on the back turn due to a tire blow out. Tower's right leg was broken, and Lee Dunning, his mechanician, was hurt internally and two ribs were broken. Physicians were not sure as to the extent of Dunning's injuries tonight.

Charles Merz, who finished third in a Stutz, brought the biggest thrill to the crowd, estimated at 100,000, when he drove the last lap of the race with his car on fire. The flames broke out at the upper stretch turn and Merz refused to stop at the pits until he had circled the track another time and finished the race. Coming down the home stretch at the finish, Harry Martin, Merz mechanician, climbed out on the hood of the car and unbuckled the straps so the pitmen could extinguish the flames quickly. Four of the eight foreign cars entered won prizes the other four being forced out by broken parts.

An American car, a Mercer, driven by Spencer Wishart, finished second, seven laps behind the winner. The Sunbeam, an English car, driven by a Frenchman, Albert Guyot, came in fourth. The other foreign cars in the money were:

Pilettes Mercedes—Knight (German), which was fifth, and Mulford's Mercedes (German), seventh. Three Italian cars were forced out of the contest.

Slower Than Last Year

The race was a little more than ten minutes slower than last year's contest, which was run in 6:21:06. This was due, it was said in a large measure to the intense heat, which necessitated many changes of tires. Another thing which caused a slower time was the fact that this year, the piston displacement was limited to 450 cubic inches while last year the race was a "free-for-all."

All the speedway records for the class of cars were broken up to 250 miles, when many stops at the pit began to cut down the average. Goux, the winner, complained at every stop at the pits because his manager refused to let him put his car to its highest speed. He claimed that he could have made much better time, but his manager contended that as he was in the lead from the 140th mile there was no use to let the Peugot out. Goux, after getting the lead from Burman, when he stopped for oil and gasoline, was never headed and finished far in the lead of his nearest competitor. Anderson's Stutz pushed the leader hard until the 187th lap when the car was forced out by a broken magneto shaft.

Goux first won fame as a race driver in France, where he was victor in a 402-mile race. Before coming here he went to the Brooklands track in England, where he made 106 miles, 307 yards in 60 minutes in the same car in which he raced today. His record in the 402-mile race broke all European records for the distance, while his performance at Brooklands track broke all world's records.

Burman who was the favorite in the betting ran a hard luck race. In the 350th lap his car caught fire in the back stretch. He put out the blaze and ran to the pits, where he had to change carbureters. He had to make several other stops and was relieved at the wheel by Hughie Hughes, who still was on the track, about twenty laps behind, when the tenth car finished.

Early in the race Evans Mason turned completely around on the lower turn, but the car stayed right side up and Evans continued until near the end of the contest.

Besides the prizes and trophies offered by accessory concerns, the following prizes were given by the Speedway management to the winners, which with their times, follow in order:

No. 16, Peugeot, Goux, 6:31:33.45, $20,000.

No. 22, Mercer, Wishart, 6:45:06, $10,000.

No. 2, Stutz, Merz, 6:50:35.75, $5,000.

No. 9, Sunbeam, Guyot, 7:05:08.10, $2,000.

No. 23, Mercedes-Knight, Pilette, 7:19:25.55, $3,000.

No. 12, Gray Fox, Wilcox, 7:23:38.90, $2,200.

No. 29, Mercedes, Mulford, 7:27:17.85, $1,800.

No. 31, Case, Disbrow, 7:30:50.95, $1,600.

No. 25, Tulsa, Clark, 7:49:21, $1,500.

No. 35, Mason, Haupt, 7:53:31, $1,400.

Nashville, Tenn., May 30.—The St. Louis and Jacksonville Dixie Flyer, southbound, collided early this morning three miles north of Martin, Tenn., with a northbound freight. The collision occurred on the Illinois Central line. It is reported here that the engineer and fireman of the passenger train and the baggagemaster, Thomas Dickerson, of Nashville, were injured.

ALLIES SIGN PEACE TREATY

Turkish and Balkan Delegates at St. James' Palace—Montenegrin Representative Dissatisfied With Terms of Pact.

London, May 30.—The preliminary treaty of peace was signed at St. James' Palace today by the delegates of all the Balkan allies and of Turkey, Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, presided at the meeting.

Dr. S. Daneff, the Bulgarian peace delegate, in the course of an interview after the signing of the preliminary treaty of peace said:

"I am rejoiced. It means not only Balkan peace, but general peace, and Europe is saved from one of the most thorny problems of the age."

M. Popovich, the Montenegrin chief delegate, after signing the treaty, made a short speech. "We have signed the preliminary treaty," he said, "because nothing else remained for us to do. We are glad to have peace, but are profoundly dissatisfied with the terms we have been obliged to accept. We have been despoiled of the fruits of our victory. We have been made the whipped boy of Europe. Great Britain took the leading part in depriving us of Scutari. We look here to secure a modification of Albanian frontier, as to give us lands for cultivation and a natural route between Podgoritza and Ipek."

The first meeting of the peace conference has been fixed for Monday, June 2nd. The Bulgarian and Turkish peace delegates also signed a protocol providing for the immediate removal of their respective armies from the scene of operations.

Great Satisfaction Expressed.

Rome, May 30.—The signing in London today of the preliminary peace treaty between the Balkan allies and Turkey caused great satisfaction both at the quirinal and the vatican and the hope was expressed that further complications between the Balkan States would now be avoided. In government circles it was said Greece should understand that Italy holds no hostile feelings against her, but is merely desirous of protecting her own interests in the Adriatic where her position is preponderant.

Bulgarians Fire on Greeks.

London, May 30.—Bulgarian artillery at Prava opened fire on the Greek position in the direction of El Euthera last night, according to the Exchange Telegraph Company's representatives in Athens. The Bulgarian commander refused to enter into negotiations with the Greek commander for the purpose of stopping the firing. Details of the engagement have not yet been received.

Owing to this aggression by the Bulgarians, a portion of the Greek fleet has been sent to Eleuthera.

KIND WORDS FOR N. C.

Walker Whiting Vick Tells of the Old North State.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., May 30.—North Carolina has caught the progressive spirit of the age, and is making long strides forward, according to Walker Whiting Vick, Assistant Secretary of the Democratic National Committee, who recently made a speech at the Oak Ridge commencement.

"One cannot help but be impressed by the wonderful changes which have been brought within the past ten years," said Mr. Vick today, and the general spirit of hustle and progress evident on all sides. When one considers that the lamented Aycock blazed the pathway about thirteen years ago for substantial educational advancement, the edulational strides from the cross-roads school house to the university itself, within that period presents an achievement of progress unrivaled in the history of the Nation.

"Having had about fifteen years practical experience in almost every section of the Union, I could not but feel proud of the lead which the Old North State is taking in its commercial and educational developments. Endowed by Nature as no other State in the Union, our good people are beginning to show the rest of the country just what real effectiveism is. They are not sitting idly by bemoaning the things of the past, but with the sturdy determination of the pioneer are building history in keeping with the pulse of the present day.

"Well may the transplanted sons of the land of the long leaf pine look with pride and admiration on the accomplishments of our fellow Carolinians at home, and with more power to their elbow in the creation of a New North State which shall stand forth pre-eminently as the model of social, industrial, commercial and educational uplift throughout the nation itself.

"With a Democratic President of progress, whose boyhood days were spent among the Tar Heels, heading the Nation, and the patriots of the State working shoulder to shoulder for the betterment of their native land, well may we feel there is indeed 'A God in Israel,' and the Government still reigns at Washington."

Walker Vick needs no introduction to North Carolinians. He lived and was educated in North Carolina. He is one of the "original Wilson men," and is almost as close to Mr. Wilson as our own Tom Pence, who sees the President with more ease than any member of Congress. P. R. A.

DENTAL SOCIETY

Hendersonville Next Meeting Place—Officers Elected

Winston-Salem, N. C., May 30.—The North Carolina Dental Society tonight selected Hendersonville as next year's meeting place and elected officers as follows:

Bourges, France, May 30.—Lieut. Jean Ferdinand Kreyder, a French aviator attached to the 54th Regiment of Artillery, was killed today by a fall from his monoplane. The machine turned turtle in a sudden storm while he was observing the effects of the artillery practice of his regiment.

DIAMOND DEALERS SCORE BIG VICTORY

Committee Decides to Grant Reduction in Proposed Underwood Rate

THE IMPORTERS SUCCESSFUL

Present Ten Per Cent Rate on Stones May be Restored—Fifteen Per Cent Rate is Very Probable

Washington, May 30.—Diamond importers have scored a victory before the Senate Finance sub-committee in charge of the sundries schedule of the tariff bill, the committee having decided upon a reduction in the proposed Underwood rate of 20 per cent ad valorem on cut diamonds. The present ten per cent rate may be restored, but it seems more probable that 15 per cent rate eventually will be determined upon.

When importer after importer appeared before the committee and declared that any rate over ten per cent on cut diamonds would increase and greatly encourage smuggling, the members of the committee began to investigate their statements. Finally when large importers insisted that a high rate on cut diamonds, assessed with a view of obtaining revenue on a luxury would force some importers to ally themselves with the smugglers the committee took the matter up with customs officials.

Members of the diamond trade tariff league of New York had declared that a 20 per cent duty would force dealers to buy diamonds from smugglers despite their unwillingness to do so, and in many cases they would buy smuggled goods unknowingly.

Customs officials were inclined to verify this view and informed members of the committee that they would be opposed to such high rate. Upon this information the sum-committee, composed of Senators Johnson, Hoke Smith and Hughes, decided to change the rate in their report to the full committee which will be made next week.

The outlook now is that the Democratic caucus on the tariff will be reported to the Senate about June 16th. Democratic leaders predict that the opposition will tire of debating the measure by July 15th, but should the Democratic ranks show signs of weakening on wool or sugar, the Republicans would continue to fight. The most optimistic estimate at present is that the new tariff cannot become law before the middle of August whatever happens.

DETAILS OF CONFESSION

Sensational Statements Made in Connection With Phagan Murder

Atlanta, Ga., May 30.—Additional details of an alleged confession admitting knowledge of the murder of Mary Phagan, which the police claimed to have secured last night from James Conley, a negro, were made public today. Conley was an employe at the Pencil factory where the girl's body was found and has been under arrest for several weeks.

According to the police Conley is alleged to have stated that Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the factory, sent him into the metal room of the plant on the day the girl disappeared where the negro found her dead body.

In the latest alleged confession the negro is said to have declared that he wrote the notes found beside the girl's body, at Frank's dictation, just after the body had been carried to the basement of the building.

Conley, this afternoon was taken to the National Pencil Factory by the police and in the presence of several police officers, city detectives, factory officials and newspaper men re-enacted what he claims was his part in the removal of Mary Phagan's body from the metal room of the establishment to the basement.

Conley, besides illustrating his own alleged actions in the affair, also described the part he charges Leo M. Frank, the factory superintendent took in disposing of the girl's body.

A sworn statement, purporting to be Conley's confession of his participation in the tragedy was published here today. According to this statement Conley, after finding the girl's body on the floor of the metal room, wrapped it in a piece of crocus bagging, placed the body upon his shoulder and started toward the elevator. Half way to the elevator, the statement recites, the body slipped from Conley's shoulders to the floor. The negro then, the statement says, called Frank, who he charges, assisted in carrying the gruesome burden to the pile of rubbish in the basement where it was found next morning by the negro watchman.

JAPAN OPPOSED TO WAR

Does Not Want to Fight Uncle Sam, Says Yamaguchi

Tacoma, Wash., May 30.—Japan does not want war with the United States, according to Y. Yamaguchi, a member of the Japanese parliament and a friend of Baron Chinda, ambassador to the United States, who arrived in Tacoma today. He is on his way to San Francisco from Yokohama, to investigate the California alien land law and the condition of the Japanese on this coast.

"One half of all the Japanese trades with the United States," said Mr. Yamaguchi. "On this account the Japanese merchants with the majority of the people generally do not desire to make trouble with their best customer and friend.

"Of course, there are some jingoes in Japan. The Japanese nation as a whole, however, is not influenced by them."

ATHLETICS WON TWO GAMES

Took Two From Yankees—Naps Played One, Won One—Washington-Boston, and Chicago-Detroit Even Breaks.

Yesterday in the American League, a day replete with possibilities and opportunities for mixing up the standing of the clubs, with the eight scheduled games of the day, developed no changes in the positions occupied by the respective teams, the wins and loses being so distributed by Dame Fate as to cause radical upheavals, although one or more of the double-headers which were taken by the same team, caused a little surprise in the respective camps.

The Philadelphia Athletics, enjoying a run of luck that has never before been equalled, took both ends of yesterday's programme from the hoodooed Yankees, taking the morning game by a ninth inning rally, but having easy picking in the afternoon.

The Cleveland Naps, scheduled by all the indications to take a double-header from St. Louis, only got one game, the morning session having been postponed by rain. The game was won in the 10th inning, after it had been tied in the eighth by a pass, a sacrifice, a single and a sacrifice fly.

The largest crowd of the season turned out at the Washington park to see the Senators take a double-header from the Boston Red Sox. The morning game went their way, with Groom doing the twirling act, opposed by Joe Wood, who was hit freely, but the afternoon session, with the peerless Johnson on the mound, went to the Champs by a 1 to 0 score. This is Johnson's second defeat of the season. Hooper, for Boston, was credited with a home run in each game, both coming in the first innings.

Chicago broke even with the Detroit Tigers, winning the afternoon game, while the Detroits took the morning affair.

Athletics Take Two.

Philadelphia, May 30.—Philadelphia won both games from New York today, taking the morning affair by a ninth inning rally 3 to 2, and enjoying an easy time in the afternoon game, which ended 7 to 4. The largest crowd of the season saw the afternoon game, but they had little to enthuse over, for the Philadelphians had a 7 to 0 lead before New York could score. The umpires' new white uniforms in the afternoon game made a decided hit.

Naps Only Win One.

Cleveland, May 30.—St. Louis lost this afternoon's 10-inning game to Cleveland 5 to 4. The morning game was postponed because of rain. Three pitchers were used by Cleveland while Wellman's offerings were hit freely by Cleveland. Cleveland scored the winning run in the 10th on D. Johnston's pass, Chapman's sacrifice, Olson's single and Turner's sacrifice fly.

Senators and Boston Split.

Washington, May 30.—The largest crowd of the season saw Boston turn the tables on Washington with Walter Johnson in the box and win the afternoon game 1 to 0. This was Johnson's second defeat this year. Hooper's home run in the first proved the only run of the afternoon. Most of the game was played in showers.

Morning game: Pitcher Groom for Washington scored a 4 to 3 victory over Joe Wood, Boston's star pitcher, in the morning game. Hooper opened the game with a home run over the fence. Wagner's home run in the final inning gave Boston its last run.

Chicago-Detroit Broke Even.

Chicago, May 30.—Chicago broke even with Detroit today by winning the afternoon game 9 to 1, and losing the morning game 2 to 3. Cicotte was in fine form while the visitors used five pitchers in an attempt to check the slugging of the locals, who bunched hits. Cobb was struck out twice today when a hit was needed.

INTERCOLLEGIATE CONTESTS.

Colleges and Universities Compete in Field and Track Contention.

Cambridge, Mass., May 30.—Out of the preliminary stage of the annual inter-collegiate track and field championships which were begun in the Harvard stadium today, there emerged four of student athletes qualified to participate in the semi-final and final evenis of tomorrow. Although the competition during the afternoon was keen it was not productive of any record performances. A fluky wind was the cause generally assigned.

In the fight for qualification, Harvard was the leader with 12; Cornell, which with Pennsylvania had been thought the principal contender for the championship, placed 10 athletes, while Pennsylvania will carry only eight in tomorrow's events. Michigan, Yale and Dartmouth qualified nine men each. The number qualified by other colleges was: California 5; Syracuse 4; Columbia 3; Johns Hopkins 3; Princeton 3; Wesleyan 2; Brown, Franklin and Marshall, Pennsylvania State, one each. Pennsylvania chances for success were not considered less favorable by their failure to qualify more men today. The Red and Blue athletes had come to Cambridge spurred by the words of their veteran coach, Mike Murphy, "it will kill me if you don't win boys," and they were confident tonight of victory.

Cornell followers expressed the belief that the trophy would go to Ithaca, while Harvard made no claims, most of the Crimson qualifiers being regarded as having little prospect of prominent places in the finals. Trial heats were held today in all events except the mile and two-mile runs. There were no reversals of form worthy of note.

Ray Collins had the distinguished honor of being the second twirler of the season to defeat the mighty Walter Johnson yesterday afternoon. Collins pitched a magnificent game, allowing only four well scattered hits, and the Senators were shut out, one to nothing.

PHILS DROP TWO TO GIANTS

The Giants Made it Three Straights—Brooklyn and Boston, Pirates and Cubs, Recs and Cardinals Broke Even.

Out of the eight games scheduled in the National League for yesterday, only one change in positions takes place as a result. The New York Giants lifted themselves another notch by taking two more games from the Phillies, making it three straight, so far for the series. Tesreau pitched the afternoon game and was a fiend at the bat, as well as pitching an airtight game. He hit a triple and a double, and scored two of his club's runs, and drove in two more. The afternoon game was hard fought, Fromme, the pitcher, recently bought from Cincinnati, making his debut and being hit hard, replaced by Marquard, who gets credit for the victory.

Brooklyn and Boston broke even on the two games scheduled, the Dodgers winning the morning and the Braves the afternoon session.

The largest crowd attended the afternoon game that has been seen at Fenway Park in years. The morning game was won by a ninth-inning rally, the score, until this frame, having been one to nothing, in favor of the Bostons.

Pittsburgh won the morning game from Chicago, in a sensational pitchers' battle, between Reulbach and Camnitz. Three of six hits off Camnitz were for extra bases. The afternoon game was postponed on account of rain.

Cincinnati took the morning game from St. Louis, but lost the afternoon game, by a four to six score. The morning game was won in the thirteenth inning, after St. Louis had tied the score in the ninth.

Giants Take Two Games.

New York, May 30.—New York won both morning and afternoon games from Philadelphia. The afternoon contest, 5 to 1, was witnessed by the largest crowd that has attended a game in New York since the 1911 world's series. Thousands had to be refused admission. Tesreau's batting was a feature as well as his pitching. He hit a triple and a double and scored two of his club's runs, and drove in two more.

Pittsburgh Won.

Pittsburgh, May 30.—Pittsburgh took the morning game from Chicago in a sensational pitchers battle between Reulbach and Camnitz. Three of the six hits on Camnitz were for extra bases, but sensational catches by Wilson and a phenomenal one-handed grab by Booe, at the expense of Zimmerman, helped Pittsburgh. Chicago got its one run on a hit, a base on balls and a double steal.

THE BELMONT RACES.

Notable Turf Event Marking Revival of Races in New York State.

Belmont Park, L. I., May 30.—Harry P. Whitney's Whisk Broom II flashed under the wire a winner in the Metropolitan handicap, at the Belmont Park race track today, in the presence of a throng of more than 25,000 persons who had gathered to witness the running of the notable turf event, marking the revival of racing in New York State.

The Whitney horse, ridden by Jockey Joe Notter, had practically been left at the post, but won well in hand in 1:39. It was the first appearance of the son of Broomstick and Audience, a purely bred hourse, on an American track. The horse was brought here this year from England, where he had alquitted himself creditably, and was trained for today's event by the veteran, James Rowe. Richard F. Carman, who owns and trains G. M. Miller and Meridian, winner of the Kentucky derby, two years ago, took prize money as the pair finished second and third.

The crowds which filled the vast stands and enclosures gave an enthusiastic greeting to the bugler when he sounded "Boots and Saddles," and the cheering was renewed again and again when eleven jockeys piloted as many mounts in parade past the club house and stands to the post, for the first of the six races on the card.

The band played "Auld Lang Syne" and the crowd, catching the spirit of the occasion, chimed in with the words of the song.

There was no attempt at open betting before or during the races. Many "oral" wagers were made, but in such a manner that the legal authoritiee were not called upon to interfere.

Those who are most interested in the maintenance of the sport in this State, including members of the Jockey Club and representatives of the allied interests of the New York and Saratoga tracks, had given assurance to the Nassau county officials of their assistance in seeing that the law prohibiting book-making or other gambling, would be strictly enforied. District Attorney Wysong and Sheriff DeMott, of Nassau county, with special officers, were on hand to see that there was no infringement of the law. No arrests were reported.

STANDING GOOD.

Commission Decides No Penalty to be Inflicted on Perryman.

Cincinnati, May 30.—The National Baseball Commission today declared Player E. K. Perryman, of the New York National League Club, to be in good standing. The player stated that he did not report to his club this Spring owing to his desire to complete his college course and therefore no penalty was inflicted.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Reprieve for Swain County Man—State Treasurer Talks of Taxation. Meredith Endowment—Wiley Straughan Case.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 30.—Governor Craig has granted a 50 days' reprieve for Lon Wells, Swain county, who is under a sentence to the State's prison for the larceny of some clothing, the reprieve being on the ground that there is doubt of the guilt of the prisoner whose friends insist that it was Wells' wife who really stole the clothing.

She has disappeared according to representations made by parties urging that the Governor take action to save Wells from serving the sentence. There was an appeal to the Supreme Court, but the appeal was dismissed on account of defects in the record, consequently Wells would have to begin his sentence very soon, but the reprieve, which is to give the Governor time to investigate the advisability of granting a pardon.

The Secretary of State charters the Standard Mica Co., of Asheville, capital $25,000 authorized and subscribed by F. A. Sumner, Henry B. Stevens and others.

Col. J. P. Kerr, private secretary to Governor Craig, has gone to Asheville for a week, this being his first visit to his home since he came to Raleigh in January to take up his duties in the Governor's office.

State Treasurer Lacy having been asked for his views as to constitutional amendments that should be considered in connection with the deliberations of the legislative commission on proposed amendments to report to the special session of the Legislature, has written Chairman E. J. Justice that he favors a segregation of property so that the State will have the corporation and franchise taxation sources for State finances and the counties and the cities derive their tax revenues from property and poll taxation generally. At the same time he fears that the corporation and franchise taxes under present rates of taxation on these sources would scarcely yield as much as the present running expenses of the State government. He hopes, however, that some equitable scale of taxation on this segregation basis will be worked out. Mr. Lacy was invited to attend the recent meeting of the special committee in Greensboro, but was unable to do so on account of a conflicting engagement.

In connection with the meeting the trustees of the Meredith College held during commencement season, it developed that fine progress is being made in the collection of the $100,000 pledges to the endowment and building fund that will enable the college to receive an additional $50,000 from the General Education Board. Of this fund that is sure to be realized within a year $100,000 is to go to permanent endowment and $50,000 to the erection of an additional building that will increase both the dormitory and the class room facilities of this wonderfully successful college which now has an enrollment of 400 students.

The State Fair management is to begin within the next week work on new and thoroughly modern stock and cattle stalls and barns that will be located on the new section of the grounds being reclaimed from the North Carolina experiment station that has been permitted to use it for a number of years. The new stalls will greatly improve accommodations for live stock exhibits and racers.

There was a very large audience last night at the First Presbyterian church to hear Rev. B. R. Lacy, Jr., just graduated as a full fledged Presbyterian minister from the Union Theological Seminary with highest honors. Indeed, he received the Hoge scholarship for a post graduate course by reason of attaining the highest honors for the seminary course. Mr. Lacy charmed his hearers last night and there is general rejoicing that he is to be heard frequently here during the Summer by reason of the fact that he is to devote himself to missionary work among the Wake county churches during the Summer.

Raleigh is negotiating the sale of $350,000 bonds for the purchase of the waterworks, the deal for the water plant to be finally closed June 6th. Four bids have been received, the highest amounting to a premium of about $400 on the issue. It is thought that this is not sufficiently high for these bonds to be sold and it is possible that the offer of a local bank to loan the city the $350,000 for a year or such a matter until better bids can be realized may be accepted.

Raleigh, N. C., May 30.—Police Justice Harris this afternoon after a hearing that continued several hours, ruled that Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, was guilty of assault on Wiley Straughan with a quart whiskey bottle and imposed a fine of $10 and costs. Straughan pleaded pleaded guilty of assault on Detective B. M. Green and paid $20 fine and costs. It was in going to the relief of Green that Rev. Davis is charged with having used the bottle. The affray was right after the acquittal of Pharmacist Chappell, of O. G. King's drug store, whom Davis charged with selling whiskey to embarrass the successful campaign of King for Commissioner of Public Safety. In the trial of Davis today he conducted his own case and on the witness stand testified that he did not even take the bottle of whiskey from his pocket. He had it in court as evidence in prosecuting Chappell. However, there were five witnesses who testified that they saw him with the bottle in his hand and three of them swore positively they saw him strike Straughan on the head with it. Straughan, a close friend of Chappell, had attacked Detective Green who claimed that he bought the whiskey from Chappell for Rev. Davis and when Green was attacked after Chappell's acquittal Rev. Davis, according to the evidence, used the bottle of whiskey on Straughan. Rev. Davis conducted his own defense today, cross-examining witnesses and addressing the court in his own defense. He and his friends charged that the conviction is a "frame up" against him, he having no witnesses to counteract their testimony except his own personal statement.

Chicago, Ill., May 30.—Eight of the largest roads entering Chicago began posting along their lines today notices to girls, issued by the Illinois Vigilance Association, warning them against chance acquaintances. The posters urge girls traveling alone to Chicago to write to one of several organizations that they may be met at the train and saved from designing men and women.

Queenstown, May 30.—Rev. Dennis O. Sullivan, of Savannah, Ga., died of heart failure on board the Adriatic on May 26th on the voyage from New York to Queenstown. He was buried at Cahirciven, Kerry.

ELIZABETHTOWN SCHOOLS.

Various Features of Exercises Held There This Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., May 29.—The closing of the graded schools here yesterday was attended by the largest crowd ever gathered here on such an occasion and that the day and evening were enjoyed by all who attended was apparent by the jolly mood of the crowd.

There is no praise too great for the very efficient principal, Mrs. Jessie Lee Clark, who has built up the school and so trained the pupils that her commencement exercises did credit to any of the higher schools. After opening with prayer by Rev. Mr. Biggs and a song beautifully rendered by the school, J. B. Clark, Esq., presented the several medals in a very forceful manner. Then Dr. Nelson P. Liles spoke on the betterment of the school, which was both practical and full of humor. Then came the speaker of the occasion in the person of Hon. John Oates, of Fayetteville, who delighted the audience with one of the best literary addresses ever heard here. Here dinner was announced and the crowd repaired to the grounds where a long table was spread with such good things as only good mothers can prepare.

Then the game of ball between the school here and Clarkton entertained the crowd, one of the fastest games of ball played on the local diamond this season. The game was won by the home team after the score was 9 to 0 in favor of Clarkton. Features of the game were a catch on second by Hans Bruni (sub) for the locals, and a home run, batted by Hedrick, of Clarkton.

The seating room was overtaxed for the concert at night, many having to stand through the programme, which was the best ever had here. Especially good were the little fellows in a grandma drill, which showed their careful training by their efficient teacher, Miss Emma Whitted, to whom belongs praise for the success of the school. The crowning of Miss Inez Davis as queen and the May pole dance was beautifully carried out. Mrs. Clark will present a play at the Court House tonight which will be a treat to the public. The proceeds go to the betterment of her school. She leaves in a few days for Wrightsville Beach where she will live with her brother this Summer and her friends hope the sea breezes will restore to her anything lost by her untiring efforts in her work the past year.

Wilson Cotton Market—Business Men Interested in Freight Rates.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., May 30.—The members of the board of trustees of the Atlantic Christian College are here and held their annual meeting last night. The board announces the election of Rev. A. R. Moore, D. D., of Savannah, Ga., to the chair of philosophy in the college. Dr. Moore has not given his decision, but it is expected that he will accept and his coming to Wilson will mean much both to the community and college.

Steps will be taken toward an endowment fund the coming year and the president, Dr. J. L. Caldwell, will give considerable of his time to this proposition.

Wilson cotton market showed some activity yesterday and 75 bales were sold at the average price of 11 3-4 cents. The Wilson cotton buyers claim that this is the best cotton market in the State.

It has been a long time since the business interests of this community were so deeply stirred as they are at present. The publication of the specific instances showing the discrimination in freight rates against Wilson merchants has been the talk of the street today. A call has been issued for a mass meeting of citizens to be held Tuesday, June 3rd. Invitations have been sent the people of other towns in the county to attend this meeting and it will be held in the Court House. Plans are being made to effect a permanent organization. The Wilson County Just Freight Rate Association and the money for a campaign will be provided. Wilson and Wilson county will be in line with other sections of the State in this fight.

EXPRESS PACKAGE LOST

Subsequently Picked Up Near Raleigh by White Man and Negroes

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 30.—Charged with making way with, if not actually stealing, an express package containing $1,900, one white man and three negroes are held here and search is being made for the $1,300 still missing, also about $600 of the money having been found on the persons of the four men arrested.

The package was lost off Seaboard train No. 20 yesterday while en route from the United States Treasury at Washington to the Merchants' Bank of Louisburg. The men being held claim they found it about ten miles north of Raleigh by the railroad track and that they divided it up, but that there was only the $600 recovered in the package. The prisoners are John H. Kilpatrick, Wilmington, Delaware, white, and Raymond Johnson, Clayton; John Moorby, Richmond; Jno. Kitchin, of South Carolina, negroes. The three negroes were arrested here early this morning while about to board a train for Richmond after they had displayed large sums of money. The white man had already taken a train for Wilmington, Del., and was captured at Norlina. The package of money seems to have in some way been lost out of the express car. The express messenger missed it soon after he left Raleigh and wired back for the express and police authorities to make search.

POTATO YIELD SMALL

Seasons Were Unfavorable — Two Deaths—Tournament July 4th

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., May 30.—A conservative estimate based on reports from various sections places the yield of Irish potatoes in this part of the State at about 30 per cent of a normal crop. With the beginning of the digging season it is apparent that not more than half of a crop will be harvested in Lenoir, Greene and Wayne counties, slightly less than 50 per cent in Onslow, Jones and Duplin, and in Craven and Pamlico around two-fifths of a crop. The same climatic forces that operated so effectively against the strawberry crop were responsible for the short potato crop. Prospects are that potatoes will bring $2.50 to $3.50 a barrel. About one-quarter to a third of the bean crop will be realized. Prices are low for the initial shipments.

Two well and favorably known men of this section died suddenly yesterday. J. T. Lanier, aged 70, died of heart failure on a train while en route from this city to his home in Pink Hill. Mr. Lanied was a native of Duplin county, and is survived by a wife and several children. Epenetus Hardee, a wealthy farmer, passed away at the home of a son near Snow Hill. He had been a leader in the Methodist Church for 60 years, and was in his 80th year. He was noted for his exceedingly strong constitution, and had a wide reputation as a progressive planter. Besides his wife five children survive him. They are: Mrs. L. McCullen, Kinston; Mrs. Mary Tucker, Whitakers; H. D. Hardee, Norfolk; Mrs. H. C. Ormond, Ayden, and E. E. Hardee, of Greene county.

The volunteer firemen of Newbern have invited the Kinston firemen to participate in a tournament in that city on July 4th. An extensive racing programme is being arranged for Independence Day, and in the firemens' contests hose wagon teams from Kinston, Washington and Morehead City are expected to be entered against the Newbern men. A total of nearly a dozen companies will be represented with horses, wagons and athletes.

New York, May 30.—An earthquake shock, the scene of which was apparently at a great distance from New York, southwest, was recorded by the seismograph at the American Museum of Natural History. The first tremors were noticed at 7:39:30 and the main waves lasted from 7:56 to 8:16.

WOULD CRY FOR HOURS

Her Troubles Were Too Numerous to Mention. They Date Back Twenty Years.

Jonesboro, Ark.—Mrs. Alphie McGill, of No. 128 Miller street, this city, says: "About 20 years ago I suffered a complete break-down in health. I was very weak, and could not do any work. For years it was hired help and treatments that got all my money. None of these medicines did me any good.

Someone told me to take Cardui. I had seen it advertised, but I thought it would be like everything else, and would do me no good. One day I got a bottle, and one bottle did me so much good I was surprised and took some more. It cured me.

Before I took Cardui I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

You may be sure, when Cardui will relieve and cure such a serious case as Mrs. McGill's, that it will much more quickly and certainly help those women who have no serious symptoms, but are just weak and ailing.

Cardui may be the very medicine your system has long been needing.

Try it and see.

What has become of the old-fashioned calico frock?

The first ladies of the land are the tomato club girls.

Most of us would like to be tipped off with the secret of success.

Build us a big navy and we can then lie down in peace. We hate to spend the money for it but peace is worth having at any cost.

It is hardly necessary to state that Josephus Daniels was born in North Carolina and that North Carolina is as proud of it as he is.

When a man "wheels around the circle" he should not have any wheels in his head. A man should always be careful about what he says at Winona.

The Republican party wouldn't deserve any sympathy at all if there were not a great many Republicans who are a great deal better than their party.

North Carolina now has 7,000 automobiles compared with 4,000 a year ago. The purchase of 3,000 machines in a year shows that somebody has money with which to add to their enjoyment.

The buds who are now coming out of college will soon blossom into the flower of hope of the country. As to the girls who are coming home from college—well, that brings on more talk.

We never suspect our friends of having a motive like other people, but if it turns out that they have design and method in their operations it isn't near so bad in them as in other people. That is, we think it isn't.

Our idea of timely assistance is that it is recognized when somebody comes to the rescue of a man when he is in a hole and can't get out, owing to the fact that the hole is one too many for his size.

Peace by intimidation is better than peace by coercion, but peace by coercion is better than no peace at all. The reason some men keep the peace is because they are not big enough to take chances on starting something.

The young man has come from college. Give him a chance before his confidence in himself gets blunted in his earliest struggles for success. The young man who has taken a technological course can help himself from the very start.

Anyhow, it's a good sign for a man to go all the way to Michigan to prove that he is not a booze artist, even though he hits a mint julep occasionally and flavors his sweet milk with bourbon so it will increase the sleep-producing quality of the milk.

Says the Atlanta Journal: "An Ohio man boasts of having an umbrella that has been in his possession for more than twenty years." The probability is that the original owner has grown so old it would be impossible for him to identify his property.

Prince Pignatelli has a prosperous chicken farm on Long Island. Of course, we are not sure we have heard the prince play many a time on the streets, but at any rate he seems to be a man who recognizes an opportunity that is better than the one he had when he saw the last one.

It is a case of contributory negligence for a rocking chair to be left in a hall, which, at best, is difficult to navigate without range lights when the night is as dark as a stack of black cats. A rocking chair concealed by the dark can be easily mistaken for a cross between a ship's propeller and a pair of winding blades.

Chicago is in a stew because it is proposed to erect a statue of the "Naked Truth" in one of the city parks. It is quite natural for Chicago to be shocked at anything typefying exposure. Even the plain truth has to be kept under cover everywhere in order to keep down riotous demonstrations among the people.

There is lots of talk about candidates for Senator Overman's job, but getting his job is not going to be as easy as talking about it. Looks like past results in this State and adjoining ones would be calculated to check some people's ambition, but of course, there are politicians, who like other people, think they can do just a little better than the other fellow did, and it takes a severe jolt to wake them up.—Newbern Sun.

A fellow who keeps all the brands in his cellar is more than apt to visit the cellar to see if everything is all right. In North Carolina if a fellow has more than a gallon on hand at one time it is seized under a law making it prima facie evidence that he is a retailer. There is no law against a man's having four quarts, but his having it is prima facie evidence that he becomes a consumer whenever he gets good and ready. When a man keeps a good stock in his cellar, as they say in Virginia, "it stands to reason" that he and his friends have a good time whenever they happen to get together. Back in the tall timbers anywhere it is known that if a man takes one he is liable to take more and then some. Ain't it so, Uncle Josh?

SAW GREAT SOUTHERN OPPORTUNITY.

The late Mr. Henry M. Flagler, who left an estate of the enormous value of $100,000,000, saw his last great opportunity in the South. His judgment was a flattering recognition of Southern resources, and his monumental achievements in Florida demonstrated his wisdom and great constructive ability. He amassed millions of dollars before he turned his attention to Florida, but finally he considered the undeveloped resources and opportunity there worthy of the millions he poured out in a development that has attracted the attention of all he world. It is noteworthy that a little more than a year ago, Mr. Flagler, then 82 years of age, wrote to the Manufacturers' Record as follows:

"It is now 26 years since I commenced my investments in Florida, and I have never faltered for a moment in my belief regarding its great future, a belief which has been demonstrated by experience to have been well founded; and what is true of Florida I believe to be equally true of all the States south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers."

That is an asset record of Mr. Flagler's recognition of the South as a field for investment and opportunity for men of constructive genius. He put the stamp of approval upon "all the States south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers," so the South need but point to his estimate of it and to his suiting his action to his word, in order to emphasize the fact that opportunities in the South are to be found in all the vast territory south of the Ohio and Potomac.

Beginning work early in life, Mr. Flagler, by his energy, his foresight and his ability to see opportunities, soon laid the foundation for his great wealth. With his great accumulations, he saw attraction for his capital in the South. He saw here the opportunity for a vast investment, and though he was well advanced in years, he kept seeing opportunities and had the confidence of youth. There is no need to again mention the magnitude of his construction in Florida, except to say that it shows what a man can do at an age when ordinary men feel disposed to retire from active life. During the last 25 years of his life he wrought the greatest achievement in all his career of business and finance.

With such a man pointing capital to the South, it is timely to emphasize his conceptions of the great resources of "all the States south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers." It is hoped there are other millionaire constructionists who will see the vision as Mr. Flagler saw it. He achieved on a huge and grand scale, but there are in the South as great opportunities as those which Mr. Flagler took for his share.

North Carolina is yawning for millions for the development of her great resources. A man like Mr. Flagler could come to Wilmington and Southport and make the greatest port on the South Atlantic. This ocean gateway is so geographically situated and so physically capable that it would warrant the construction of a railroad from the Atlantic to the Mississippi river, connecting the port with all the trunk lines into Chicago, Minneapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, Chattanooga, and other Middle West and Southern cities whose natural port is at the mouth of the Cape Fear.

Mr. Flagler built a railroad 500 miles long from Jacksonville to Key West, achieving the climax with the Oversea Railroad that sends trains into the island city of Key West, a city surrounded by the ocean. As great as was that work, one-fourth its cost spent in North Carolina would pay more as an investment. It takes men like Mr. Flagler to see those enormous opportunities, which, because of their magnitude, are walked over unnoticed by ordinary men. Let us hope some of the country's great constructionists will come to the Cape Fear ocean gateway and see their opportunity here.

WATER OCEANWARD AND INWARD.

With water oceanward to the furtherest ends of the earth, and water inward on navigable watercourses providing steamboat navigation for 400 miles, what port on the entire Atlantic equals Wilmington-Southport? We seek the map in vain to find a port so geographically situated as an ocean distributing point and so naturally provided with waters for ocean and interior distribution, not to mention the railroads for the widest possible distribution to all points of the compass.

What are we going to do with an ocean gateway so unequalled in its extent and so situated as to possess inconceivable possibilities? What is North Carolina going to do with a sea outlet that can be easily converted into a rate basing port? Leaving out the oceans that are soon to be joined at the isthmus of Panama, opening Wilmington and Southport to all the ports of the world, probably few stop to think that Wilmington's steamboat service into the interior affects directly a territory embracing 500 square miles. Besides that, Wilmington has the benefit of water transportation with regular steamer and steamboat service into the very centre of South Carolina. Freights can be sent from Wilmington to Columbia by both water and rail, but how many ever stopped to think of it? Freight shipped by the Clyde Line to Georgetown transfer to steamboats up the Santee and Congaree, reaching all intermediate points as far into the interior as Columbia. Freights shipped by the Clyde Line to Georgetown transfer to steamboats on the Waccamaw river and touch all points between Georgetown and as far up as Conway, S. C.

Besides the 400 miles of inland navigation from Wilmington into the interior of North Carolina, about 300 miles of navigable waters in the interior of South Carolina are tributary to the water transportation advantages of Wilmington. That means that the business men of Wilmington actually have the advantage of 700 miles of river territory served by steamboats! Did you ever stop to think of that? Did you ever study your port? When you do, it will astonish you.

Beginning at Fayetteville and coming down the Cape Fear, there is water transportation all around the circuit to Wilmington, Southport, Georgetown, Columbia and Conway. When the present work of canalizing the Cape Fear is completed, and the Intra-coastal waterway is opened to Georgetown, a steamer can leave Fayetteville and go inland all the way to either Columbia or Conway. Fayetteville will have an eight foot channel at all seasons of the year and she will be a veritable inland port, with the advantage of securing ocean transportation by certain class of vessels. There already is a large distribution by water from Wilmington to Fayetteville, but it ought to be immense when, in about two years, the canalization project will be completed and Fayetteville takes full advantage of water transportation to make herself a distributing point.

The Star yesterday called attention to the fact that Columbia is receiving starch in bulk from New York, shipped by the ton by the Clyde Line to Georgetown and thence by steamboat to the capital of South Carolina. If New York is distributing by water to Columbia, Wilmington can do it over exactly the same route. Just as Columbia is using the port of Georgetown to secure water rates, so can Fayetteville. What are the real opportunities for our ports and for the inland water points that are in a position to take advantage of them? We have no doubt we are overlooking or neglecting golden opportunities every day.

IMPORTED MATERIALS FOR MANFACTURING

With a nine months' record as the criterion, this country has beaten all records in the importation of raw materials for manufacturing purposes. According to a statement given out by Secretary of Commerce William C. Redfield, covering nine months ended with March, the high record mark has been reached in ten leading commodities, such as cotton, wool, silk, fibres, tin, copper, rubber, hides, lumber and tobacco. While we are exporting greater quantities of our own cotton, we have imported foreign cotton to the amount of 100,000,000 pounds compared with 60,000,000 pounds during the nine corresponding months in 1912.

There have been large increases in all the other products named above. All this shows clearly the great activity of the manufacturing plants of the United States. When the Panama canal is completed, it will give all our Atlantic ports free and better access to the raw materials of South America and the Orient. It will greatly increase their opportunities for becoming industrial centers. If we live long enough we will see industrial establishments here working up raw materials from South America, Japan and China, just as the world is getting its raw coeton from us and converting it into clothing for all the world, including us.

Even Wall Street seems to be taking care of itself since Uncle Sam decided to quit nursing it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

What's to become of the country? Here is a regiment of United States troops, regulars, the 11th Cavalry, passing in review before a Confederate brigadier, gray-clad, plumed and hatted, wearing moreover insignia which beyond doubt identified him as present in the character of commander-in-chief, United Confederate Veterans. But worse things than that befell at Chattanooga Tuesday: "All the officers saluted the gray-haired veteran commander-in-chief, as they passed," and "the regimental band played 'Dixie'." Doubtless the nation will survive the shock, but one shudders to think of the effect on the nerves of some of our Northern contemporaries. But, queer as they may deem it, such incidents strengthen loyalty to the Union and sectional fraternity.—Columbia State.

The strawberry growers in the Wilmington trucking district have this season shipped to the Northern and Western markets 1,189 carloads. The Carolina Fruit & Truckers' Journal says there are 100 carloads in the fields that could be shipped if the prices justified. We are to assume that these 100 carloads will go to waste, and we are awaiting that paper's opinion as to the practicability of the canning factory for the truck farm. The dewberries and huckleberries are now coming on and they may share the fate of the strwberries to a lesser degree. Then the canning factory would save the surplus crop of beans, cabbage, beets and other truck liable to the sag in prices. At the opening of the strawberry season the prices were from $6 to $8 a crate. The prices of recent days have dropped to $1 a crate. It looks to us as if it would be a good thing for the truckers to catch the cannery idea.—Charlotte Observer.

Japan is taking her time in the consideration of the problem created by the passage of the California anti-alien land bill. She has not yet made answer to the American note sent in reply to her formal protest. Her delay has occasioned some surprise and, in certain quarters, apprehension. It is not likely that there is real ground for the latter feeling. The theory that Japan's reply will be an ultimatum and that she is withholding it in order that she may in the meantime prepare for instant action in case her demands are not met is an improbable theory. A far more reasonable explanation of her delay is found in the illness of the Mikado, which for a time overshadowed all other matters in the island empire, and in the advisability, which the Japanese statesmen must perceive, of giving public opinion throughout the world time to crystallize and take shape with regard to the dispute now open between the two nations.—Charleston News and Courier.

DECORATION DAY EXERCISES

Graves Blanketed With Flowers—Gettysburg Address a Feature

Washington, May 30.—Veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American wars, and members of various women's auxiliaries and other patriotic societies here today joined in the annual Memorial Day exercises, and the decoration of the graves of the nation's soldier and sailor dead. The principal exercises were held at the National military cemetery at Arlington, where each grave of a known or unknown hero received its small flag and its blanket of flowers, the fallen wearers of the gray not being forgotten.

At Arlington the exercises began with the decoration of the "tomb of the unknown dead."

The main part of the Spanish-American war society's programme was in the afternoon when the Rev. James S. Montgomery delivered an impassioned plea for universal peace.

At almost the same time Senator Sherman, of Illinois, as the principal speaker at the soldier's home exercises, was declaring that no man alive today would see the time when war would be no more.

OVER 5,000 EXCURSIONISTS

Tidewater Power Company's Series of Free Excursions to Sunday Schools Ended Yesterday With Fine Record.

The series of free Sunday School excursions given during May to the churches of the city and suburbs by the Tidewater Power Company ended yesterday when the Sunday Schools of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and of the East Wilmington church were carried to Wrightsville Beach, the passengers numbering 334, which made the total number carried this Spring 5,389.

That this large number of people should have been safely carried to and from the beach without an accident or mishap of any kind, is considered a very fine tribute to the careful, painstaking and skilful superintendency and operation of the suburban trains, particularly when it is considered that the greater number of the excursionists were small children and lively and somewhat thoughtless young people, with a number of aged people also, all of whom are inexperienced in traveling, forming a comparatively difficult class of passengers for trainmen to care for.

The broad generosity of the Tidewater Company in this and other years in giving the Sunday Schools these free outings is thoroughly appreciated by the superintendents, officers and students of the various schools. This is the sixth year the excursions have been operated, and although thousands have been handled on the suburban trains, the same good record for safety made this year has characterized the excursions in other years.

Twenty-nine Sunday Schools made the trip this Spring, on dates running from May 1st to May 30th. The record for the month and the number of passengers carried on each excursion is as follows:

May 1st, Salvation Army, 150; May 2nd, Delgado and Winter Park Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday Schools, 275; May 5th, St. James and St. John's Episcopal, 250; May 7th, Church of the Good Shepherd, 410; May 8th, Sixth Street Advent, 153; May 9th, Immanuel Presbyterian, 238; May 13th, Trinity and Bladen Street Methodist, 241; May 14th, Wrightsboro Baptist and Presbyterian, 218; May 15th, First Baptist, 447; May 16th, St. Matthew's and St. Paul's Lutheran, 440; May 19th, Fifth Street Methodist, 347; May 21st, Grace Street Methodist, 495; May 22nd, St. Mary's Catholic 252; May 23rd, First Presbyterian, 258; May 26th, Christian, 98; May 21st, Brooklyn and Southside Baptist, 581; May 28th, Fourth STreet Adventist and Christian Science, 436; May 30th, St. Andrew's and East Wilmington, 334—Total 5,389.

The Tidewater Company's people saw to it that at the beach every thing was made pleasant and comfortable for the excursionists. Ice water was provided, tables for the lunchers, seats for all; there was maintained a nice toilet room for ladies, and a room with swinging cribs for the babies. The company's employes watched over the safety of the youngsters.

A feature of the excursions worthy of notice is that the poor children, through the Salvation Army, were given an outing along with all the others, and they had just as big a time—a bigger time, perhaps, because their pleasures of this character are fewer. Another feature was the number of aged people carried free. The Sunday School officers were instructed to invite these who are worthy of any attention that can be paid them, their outings being few and far between.

Capt. W. P. Corbett, the patron saint of the Sunday Schools, who has had personal supervision of these excursions, is delighted with the Spring's record, which eclipses all past Springs in the point of numbers carried. He and his company have received abundant evidences of the appreciation of the Sunday School people, who understand very well that such liberality on the part of the company represents no small sum of money, as a simple calculation of the fares will reveal, to say nothing of the expense of operating the trains and the other provisions made for the pleasure of the excursionists.

Dr. A. D. McDonald Celebrates His Eighty-first Birthday.

This is the 81st birthday of Dr. A. D. McDonald. He was born in Moore county, May 31st, 1832, of Scotch parents. Early in life he taught school. Later he studied medicine. Many years ago he settled in this city and has resided here and practiced his profession as friend and associates of the men of his generation all of whom have passed to their reward except Dr. W. J. Love, who is his junior.

Early in life he united with the Union Presbyterian church of his native county. He identified himself with the St. Andrew's Presbyterian church of this city, and has been one of its trusted and beloved ruling elders since March 16th, 1884. His wife, who was his true helpmeet, was Miss Mary J. Powers, of Pender county. She went before him to her rest and reward in July, 1905. He was made a Master Mason in 1858 and is also a Red Man and Knight of Pythias. His friends will wish for him many more years of usefulness. His full name, Alexander Donaldson McDonald, will show what a Scotchman he has a right to be. His friends will find him at 311 North Fourth street.

DEATH OF MR. A. J. MOTT

Confederate Veteran Passes After Protracted Illness.

It was with great regret that those who knew him learned yesterday of the death of Mr. Andrew J. Mott, at the family home at Fifth and Marstellar streets, which occurred at 10 A. M. He had been in poor health for several months. The remains will be taken to Pender county this morning on the 8 o'clock train and the interment will be at the Moore Creek Battleground, where others of the family of the deceased are buried. Mr. Mott was in his 68th year and was a soldier of the Confederacy. He is survived by his wife and son, Mr. William Mott, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams and Mrs. Malissa Perry, of the city. Mr. Mott was a loyal member of the Brooklyn Baptist church and enjoyed the high esteem of many people who knew him as a square and fair, straightforward man. He was a carpenter by trade and until ill health came to him, worked in this line. He was a member of Company K, 61st Infantry, and at Gettysburg was wounded, seven bullets lodging in his clothing and accoutrements, one of which incapacitated him.

JOHN BARLEYCORN BURIED

Executed Under Sentence of Superior Court, the Remains Were Interred at City Hall With Fitting Ceremony

One hundred and fifty-seven gallons, one quart and one pint of whiskey in containers ranging in size from a half pint to one gallon, were smashed by the police yesterday, under a special order from Judge M. H. Justice, of Superior Court; and the remains were interred in a veritable grave on the premises of City Hall.

This funeral of John Barleycorn was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and acquaintances. The services were conducted by Chief of Police John J. Fowler, whose smiles, facetious remarks and general levity were irritating to a degree and were entirely malapropos to an occasion demanding a sad-eyed solemncholy.

Mr. Bernice C. Moore, former Councilman in charge of the Department of Public Safety, whose pernicious activity in attacking the personal liberty of divers persons was responsible for the presence of so much whiskey at police headquarters, was present and requested permission to "bust" the first bottle, to christen the grave, as it were, and he did this, with fiendish glee, and kept on breaking bottles until his arm grew weary.

Others present at the final rites were Plainclothesmen Leon George and D. W. Coleman, House Officer Joe Lane and Patrolmen A. D. Smith and T. M. Hall, all of whom had more or less to do with assembling the various packages of whiskey.

Watching it all well done were Mayor P. Q. Moore, Solicitor Peschau, Councilman W. F. Jones, present head of the Department of Public Safety, who applied for the order from Judge Justice, and on whose recommendation, 22 quarts of the best quality of the contraband whiskey and one bottle of rum, were turned over to the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

As the bottles were smashed, contents and broken glass were dropped into the grave, and Leon George would be saying, "Here goes another 35 cents," as he pitched in half-ipnt after half-pint. At prices that prevailed when blind tigers flourished more luxuriantly than at present, it is estimated that the whiskey destroyed yesterday was worth not less than $1,000.

When the unprecedented vandalism was completed, the grave was half filled with broken glass and several cart loads of paper cartons were scattered around. The hole was then filled up and those bereaved departed, overcome by sad thoughts—and the fumes of whiskey.

DOCTORS AGAINST MINISTERS

Baseball at League Park This Afternoon of More Than Ordinary Interest—Benefit of the District Nurse Fund

This afternoon, promptly at 3:30, will be called the game of baseball which promises to be, in its own peculiar way, the most interesting one ever played south of Baltimore. The first ball will be tossed by Mayor Parker Quince Moore.

In the columns of this paper the line-up of the two teams has previously been published, but it is given again so that the public may have clearly in mind the personnel of the batteries and of the different positions on the diamond.

Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure is manager of his team, with assistance in reserve. The line-up is:

H. W. Koelling, catcher.
J. M. Wells, pitcher.
Baker, 1st base.
J. A. Sullivan, 2nd base.
Father Dennen, 3rd base.
F. B. Clausen (captain), shortstop.
W. H. Milton, rightfield.
C. T. Rogers, leftfield.
J. D. Bundy, centerfield.

To oppose this strong team, Dr. Andrew Harriss, manager, will have on hand:

Harper, catcher.
Hooper, catcher.
Crawford, pitcher.
Moore, pitcher.
Joslyn, pitcher.
Wessell, 1st base.
Green, 2nd base.
Slocum, 3rd base.
Burbank, shortstop.
Caldwell, shortstop.
Causey, rightfield.
Cranmer, centerfield.
Croom, leftfield.
Bulluck, leftfield.

Manager Harriss' assistants are Drs. Bolles and P. J. Thomas.

The official scorer of the game is Dr. E. J. Wood. Dr. G. G. Thomas and Bishop Strange divide the umpire honors.

The above should be enough to call together a record-breaking crowd. Combined with this are the facts that the price of admission is only 35 cents, which includes a seat in the grandstand, and that the money thus raised assists the Ministering Circle of King's Daughters in their assumed obligation of the entire support of the District Nurse. As this work undertaken by the Circle requires about $1,000 each year, the ladies have to resort to many ways to get together this amount. A large attendance at the game will not only help them, but it will add zest and pep to the players, and all who attend will undoubtedly receive the full value of the money paid out.

Tickets may be bought in advance at the Mission Pharmacy, Baxter's, Struther's and DeRosset's. There is a rather unique poster in DeRosset's window advertising the game.

The Recorder's Court

Barring a featureless water wagon accident, only one case was tried by the Recorder yesterday morning, this being against Asa Taylor, who was fined $20 and trimmings for disorderly conduct. The cases of assault with deadly weapons against L. W. Johnson, white, and Tom Devane, colored, went over until the 9th, on account of Devane's condition. Johnson is charged with shooting him in the thigh. A cash bond was put up by Johnson in the sum of $200 for his appearance. Court was held in the Superior Court room, which it will continue to occupy when Superior Court is not in session. The quarters prepared for the court in the Court House basement are considered quite too small on ordinary occasions.

The Tidewater Power Company will put on a 10-minute schedule from 2:10 to 3:30 P. M. on account of the game.

CONVICT BUILDING SKETCHED

Commissioners Have Preliminary Plan of Proposed Concrete Structure at County Home—Need and Value of It

Architect James F. Gause has prepared a preliminary sketch of the proposed concrete building to be erected on the county property near the County Home, for housing convicts of both races and sexes and of all ages; and while the Board of County Commissioners doesn't yet know just what it wants in this regard, the sketch gives a good idea of the general purposes in mind.

The predominating idea in the consideration of the subject by the board is to segregate juvenile offenders from hardened criminals, to separate certain classes of criminals and the insane now cared for in the County Home, from those whose presence in the home is due to the fact that they have nowhere else to live, and to take care of all persons of all classes in a humanitarian manner.

That there is a pressing need of some place for young incorrigables of both races is apparent to every citizen who has been in the courts when boys were brought before the judges for punishment. It has been a knotty problem with the Recorder and the judges in Superior Court, as to what to do in these cases. Boys wilfully violate the law and the courts see the need of punishment, but they halt before the proposition of sending them to the county prison or to the county roads, where their associations are such that to keep them there amounts practically to a very thorough course in viciousness and crime.

Of late, well-meaning persons have been advocating the establishment of a juvenile court and citizens interested in sociological subjects have given some thought to it, but as one very practical clergyman points out, it is useless to attempt any improvement in this line until the county creates a place of correction and punishment. The Recorder's court, it is argued, is amply sufficient to deal with the trial and sentence end of the matter, but after that, the court finds itself without facilities for punishment and correction of its young defendants.

Then there is the question of criminal men and women of both races who, unable to work on the roads, are perforce sent to the County Home, an institution never intended for housing criminals, but established for unfortunate people guilty of nothing, who are without a shelter. The new building would provide for these.

It would also provide for the insane. Again, in this matter, the County Home is no place for such people. Time and again the jail and the home are handicapped by their presence and the State institutions are always full to the doors. The new building would have accommodation for the violent insane, the criminal insane and those who are harmless, until such time would come when those of them who can be admitted to the State hospitals can secure admission therein.

Finally, the new structure would furnish a safe, sanitary and modern prison for the able-bodied criminals, so arranged, equipped and conducted that a sentence spent under its roof would tend to reform rather than harden the unlucky devils whom society punishes; and it is the teaching of modern society and religion that society's aim in penal institutions is not simply to punish but to reform, if it can, the people who violate the law, both because it is the essence of Christianity and because it is a good investment to try to make a prisoner a better citizen than a more desperate and hardened criminal than he was when imprisoned.

The new building would be provided with apartments for every class of criminals and equipped with everything that an enlightened society deems of value in such a place.

It is planned to make it of concrete, of two stories, and of size sufficient to take care of future needs. It will cost some money, how much it is not known. The board wishes to figure as closely as good business sense will allow. And after it has completed its plans, it will submit the proposition to the people, and then the project, considered a very proper one for a progressive citizenship, will be left to the taxpayers.

In this connection it may be stated that the county stands in very great need of a building to house supplies. Buying in large quantities, it saves much money on supplies, but has no place to put its purchases; buying in small quantities, it would not need a building, but it would be paying dealers' profits that in time would amount to enough to build such a structure as is needed now. The warehouse could be built in connection with the jail so that the upper story could be utilized to relieve any congested condition that might obtain, as has often been the case, in the prison itself.

It is pointed out that these projects call for liberal consideration on the part of the people—of a progressive people that only the other day wrote down their approval in very plain letters, of a bond issue of $100,000 for more roads and of $175,000 for 20th century educational facilities.

Last S. S. Excursion.

The last of the Sunday School excursions, with perhaps one or two to come in June, was given yesterday by the Tidewater Power Co., to the Sunday Schools of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and the East Wilmington church. The number of people was 334 and that many greatly enjoyed the outing, for the weather was perfect.

MEETING HELD AT WARSAW

..Semi-Annual Convention of R. F. D. Carriers of Eastern District—Plans Discussed for the State Convention.

At Warsaw yesterday was held the semi-annual convention of the Eastern District Association of Rural Letter Carriers. The meeting was well attended by carriers in this section of the State and was full of interest for all, for besides electing officers for the ensuing years plans were outlined for entertaining the State association which meets in Wilmington July 3rd and 4th.

The pleasure of those present was marred because of the absence of Mr. E. D. Pearsall, of Rocky Point, who has been a familiar figure at all the former meetings of the association. It was with much regret that the members learned that Mr. Pearsall was kept away on account of the state of his health, which has been failing rapidly of late.

The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock by Mr. R. F. Gore, of this county, president of the association. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church at Warsaw, following which the roll was called, showing the delegates in attendance, namely: R. F. Gore and J. W. Russ, Wilmington; D. J. Ward, Winnabow; J. H. Fussell and J. T. Jerome, Rose Hill; L. B. Carr, J. H. Evans and C. H. Rivenbark, Wallace; J. R. Wilson, Warsaw; B. A. Summerlin, Mount Olive, and C. F. Collins, Clinton.

John Best, Esq., of the Warsaw bar, was the principal speaker of the day. He was introduced by Senator Rivers D. Johnston. Mr. Best made a splendid talk, calling particular attention to the important part of the rural free delivery in the development of the country. His remarks were greatly appreciated by the carriers, who extended him a rising vote of thanks.

At this juncture a letter from Mr. E. D. Pearsall was read. In it he expressed regret that he was detained at home on account of feeble health. The following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That it is with sincere regret that we learn of Brother Pearsall's feeble condition at this time and we tender our sympathy and sincerely hope that he will soon regain his health and that he will be with us at our State meeting July 3rd and 4th.

"Resolved, further, That we elect him an honorary member of this association for life without dues."

Election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, R. F. Gore; vice president, S. L. Bradshaw; secretary and treasurer, D. J. Ward; chaplain, J. C. Jerome.

J. W. Russ, of Wilmington, and B. A. Summerlin, of Mount Olive, were elected delegates to the State convention.

President Gore was elected chairman of the entertainment committee for the State convention with the following assistans; J. W. Russ, D. J. Ward, A. K. Mallard and L. B. Carr.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the association in Wilmington on Labor Day.

MRS. ALICE C. DAVIS.

Further Account of Death of Fayetteville Lady in Baltimore.

(Fayetteville Observer, May 30.)

Mrs. Alice Cook Davis died in University Hospital, Baltimore, Thursday, 29th inst., at 12:45 P. M. after an illness of several weeks. She came from Wilmington to this city, on the way to Baltimore, and was not well. After reaching Baltimore, she became violently ill, and was taken to the hospital.

Mrs. Davis was the eldest daughter of the late Col. John H. Cook and Mary Starr Cook, and widow of Jas. D. Davis, who was at one time treasurer of the old Western Railroad, now the Greensboro branch of the A. C. L. She was a woman of fine mind, unbounded energy and lovely character. Always bright and cheerful, she made the world look brighter to those around her. As a wife, mother, friend and neighbor she served well, and will be sadly missed. For several years she had been dividing her time at the homes of her children, who live in different cities in this State and elsewhere. When the news of her death was received by her son, Mr. E. G. Davis, he was examining a witness in a case in court here, in which he was defending a man on trial for his life.

Mrs. Davis is survived by five children—Dr. Hoagland C. Davis, of the University Hospital, Baltimore; Mr. E. G. Davis, attorney, of Fayetteville; Mrs. O. E. Adams, of Asheville; Mrs. D. M. Fairley, of Manchester, and Miss Nellie C. Davis, of Fayetteville. She is also survived by the following sisters and brothers: Miss Nellie Cook, of Wilmington; Mrs. D. H. Owen, of Fayetteville; Mrs. C. H. Smith, of Arcadia, Fla.; Col. W. S. Cook, Hon. H. L. Cook, Mr. J. P. Cook and Mr. A. J. Cook, all of this city.

The body arrived here at 7:15 o'clock this morning from Baltimore, accompanied by Dr. Davis, Miss Davis and Mrs. Fairley, who were with their mother when she died. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from First Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., of Maxton, who was pastor of the church in the maiden days of the deceased. Miss Nellie Cook and Miss Kate Johnson, cousin of Mrs. Davis, arrived from Wilmington last night.

The body was taken to the old Cook homestead on Hay street.

PROPERTY ORDERED SOLD.

Scott's Hill Land & Lumber Co., Holdings to be Closed Out.

The decree of Superior Court, Judge Justice presiding, in the case of T. M. Byers, et al., vs. the Scott's Hill Land & Lumber Co., is that all the property of the company shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and W. P. Stacy, Esq., are made commissioners. The decree further orders that the temporary receiver, the Atlantic Trust & Banking Co., be made permanent, giving bond in the sum of $500. There are two mortgages on the property, one of $20,000 to W. H. Hill, and one of $22,500 to John W. Frost, trustee. The court orders that the property be sold free of claims and the mortgages transferred from the property to the funds received from the sale.

The commissioners are to use their judgment in selling the property, in bulk or otherwise, real and personal, together or separately; and they are to keep separate the proceeds of such property covered by the second mortgage as is not covered by the first. Purchasers are to pay 15 per cent. of the purchase price down, and after the commissioners' report has been on file 10 days, any interested person may ask a re-sale. The mortgagees may come in at any time as parties to the suit. If the mortgages are attacked for fraud, the court may make order assuring a fair settlement. The complaint in this case alleged that the company owed $82,000, with assets of less than half that much; that the authorized capital is $75,000, and that although 395 shares of stock at $100 per share were issued, only $16,400 was ever paid in; that the officers refused to make any effort to collect the obligations due. It is said that a number of persons in the neighborhood bought stock.

The exercises were in every way very pleasing and it will be a pleasure to note that Mr. Lucas has completed the course there with honors to himself. He will spend perhaps a couple of years at the University Hospital inRichmond as an interne and taking post-graduate work, leaving for the general practice with an excellent equipment for his chosen profession, so long adorned by his late father, who was universally loved and esteemed throughout Eastern Carolina.

CASE OF UNDERBILLING.

False Statements in Bills Accompanying Shipments.

(Cincinnati Post, May 3.)

Underbilling, or false billing, means the making of false statements in the bills accompanying shipments of commodities, by means of which a shipper obtains, or attempts to obtain, transportation at less than regular freight rates.—Assistant District Attorney Coffin.

Albert Weil, secretary and treasurer of the Louis Lipp Co., of Winton Place, manufacturers of bath tubs and plumbers' supplies, was sentenced Saturday to serve 60 days in the Troy (O.) jail on a charge of underbilling shipments. The company was fined $2,500.

A plea to have the jail sentence removed failed, and it was announced Weil would go to jail within a week. Meauwhile he is at liberty on his own recognizance.

Both Weil and the company pleaded guilty before United States Judge Hollister. They were indicted by the Federal grand jury in February and were expected to fight the case.

Before administering punishment, Judge Hollister said there was no reason why a merchant should be dishonest than any other man and that the trust had only affected a part of the Lipp Co.'s business. He said there is a new era in business life which is resulting in more honesty.

Louis Lipp, president of the company, produced a statement of business indicating the company was not as prosperous as supposed.

The Lipp Co., might have been fined $5,000 on each of the 27 counts of the indictment, or a total of $135,000, and if Judge Hollister had inflicted the maximum sentence he could have sent Weil to jail for 54 years.

SUNBEAM CLUB PRESENTS "FOUR LEAVED CLOVER."

The Sunbeam Club of Miss Alderman's school presented "The Four Leaved Clover" last evening at the Academy of Music to a fairly good house and the charming operetta was enjoyed quite thoroughly by the audience. The parts were executed very cleverly and the costumes were pleasing to a degree.

The scene of the play is laid in 16th century Spain, at the castle of Aguilar, the countess of which estate lost her daughter, Lady Hinda. All except the countess believe the daughter dead. She holds that she lives and wanders in strange lands, unprotected, wherefore she gives orders to turn no wanderer from her doors. This hospitality, her friends predict, will reduce the countess to poverty, but persisted in, it finally is the means of the recovery of the long lost daughter.

The cast of the operetta, which was in three acts, was as follows:

Isabella, Countess of Aguilar—May Lilly McClammy.

Lady Inez—Elizabeth Westbrook.

Lady Hinda, known as Juanita, Jessie Frieda Till.

Susanna, maid to Lady Inez—Julia Pape.

Wrightsville Beach

Enter the 1913 season.

Prospects were never brighter for a most successful resort season and the hotels and boarding houses have made the usual elaborate preparations for taking care of the crowds that are certain to visit this popular recreation ground. Word comes from hundreds of guests of other years that they will be back again this season, some for a longer stay than ever, and many will induce their friends to join them at the resort for their annual vacation.

The Seashore Hotel will open the new season with breakfast this morning. Already there are a number of guests at the hotel. Mr. W. C. Carrington, of Spartanburg, S. C., arrived a few days ago to spend six or eight weeks. He comes to the resort and to the Seashore Hotel as regular as the seasons come and he always spends several weeks, being one of the most devoted and enthusiastic anglers to be found anywhere. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wright, of Boardman, have spent several days at the Seashore already this season and they are expected to return today with their two daughters for the week-end. Mrs. Godfrey C. Adams, of New York city, arrived a few days ago to spend the season at the Seashore. She has been coming to Wrightsville Beach and stopping at the Seashore Hotel for the past four seasons. Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, the genial and affable manager, expects a number of guests to register today for the week-end, but there will be no big crowds until next week. A number of improvements have been made at the Seashore, such as the addition of a number of rooms, re-arrangement and enlargement of the lobby, which is now one of the most attractive to be found anywhere in the State.

Mr. James F. Divine has returned from Greensboro, where he has been clerk at the Guilford Hotel, and has entered upon his duties as one of the popular cashiers at the Seashore Hotel, where he has served faithfully and well for the past several seasons. He has been most cordially greeted by many friends.

Wrightsville Beach every year brings to Wilmington and the resort thousands of visitors from this and other States throughout the country. Many return each season and they say there is no seaside resort anywhere at which they had rather spend their vacation period. The usual number of visitors are expected this season. It is more than likely that the number will be increased. Report indicates that there will be the usual large crowds from Atlanta despite the fact that Tybee, near Savannah, and the beach near Brunswick as well as the mountains of North Carolina are making an extraordinary effort for the bulk of the pleasure-seekers from the Georgia Capital. A traveling man a few days ago told a friend that Atlanta people would come to Wrightsville this year in greater numbers than ever before, according to information given him while there a short time ago. Owing to the fact that there are several conventions to meet here this Summer, North Carolinians will be more in evidence than since the "convention season," a few years ago. South Carolinians will be largely represented as usual.

The Oceanic Hotel will open with supper this evening. Mr. Chas. E. Hooper, the manager, has been on the ground for several weeks and has everything in tip-top shape for the opening. His assistants and help have all arrived and they were busy yesterday putting the finishing touches for the opening today, when it is expected that there will be a number of guests to register for the week-end. Mr. Hooper was manager of the Oceanic Hotel two years ago and is well known to the hundreds of people who annually visit the resort and make the Oceanic their headquarters. The usual repairs to the building have been made and the lobby and the front piazza have been repainted. The most important improvement that has been made since last season is the erection of a pavilion between the hotel and the ocean. The pavilion extends only a short distance from the water's edge. It is connected with the hotel proper by extension of the veranda on the ocean side of the hotel. This will doubtless prove a most delightful retreat for the guests of the hotel. The pavilion is nearing completion and finishing touches will be given early next week.

The Hanover Inn, which opened last season for the first time and had a most successful business, will not open for about a week or ten days yet. Mr. H. W. Foss, who has been selected as manager, will arrive within the next few days to get the house ready for the opening. It is usually along about the tenth of the month before the beach has any great crowds and the owners of the Hanover decided that the other two hotels could easily take care of all the guests for the first few days of the month.

Although some 25 new cottages have been erected on the beach since last season, the statement was made several days ago that every cottage had been retned save two small ones and they were not expected to go unrented many days. A man was here from Greensboro to get a cottage in which to run a boarding house. There was nothing doing. The cottages are commanding higher rents this year than ever before. Some of the cottages that formerly rented for $200 and $250 a season are renting this year for $300 to $350. Many people have already moved down to the beach from the city and are occupying cottages.

The first dance of the season at Lumina will be given tonight. Music will be furnished by full orchestra, the members of which have already arrived. Prof. John F. Kneisel, who had an engagement the past Winter in Atlanta, is again director of the orchestra. He arrived a few days ago. Prof. Kneisel will also direct the Oceanic orchestra again this season.

The Summer schedule on the suburban line will be put in effect by the Tidewater Power Company today. Cars will be operated between the city and the beach every half hour. With favorable weather Sunday the company expects to handle a large crowd of people from the city.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—Eight Russian Jews were burned to death today in the village of Pointoff, near Kaliss, Russian Poland. A band of men whose identity has not been learned, after nailing up the door and windows of the house in which their victims resided, set fire to the building and disappeared.

Belgrade, May 30.—The Pravda says Bulgaria is ready to negotiate with Servia for a revision of the treaty of alliance on condition that all the Balkan governments order a demobilization of their forces.

..Theatrical..

Five pictures at the Grand Theatre today, a new and special programme by the orchestra and the natural delights of the house should bring capacity crowds to Wilmington's favorite playhouse this afternoon and evening.

The picture programme will be headed by a great Selig, "The Burglar Who Robbed Death," the story of a physician's regeneration, a big double comedy Biograph presenting "He Had a Guess Coming," and "A Horse on Bill". The first is a farce comedy of scintillating wit and humor and the last named is a burlesque comedy that will keep the laugh going from beginning to end. In addition to these two there will be another double film, presenting two equally as good subjects.

The programme by the orchestra is a notable one and opens with an overture, "Echoes March," by Brown; a waltz, "Blue Danube," by Straus; a march, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," by Shapiro, and an intermezzo, "The Garden of Allah," by Keiser. Everybody is invited to get the benefit of the big week-end bill at the Grand today.

Saturday at Bijou

"Great is the Bijou." That is the unanimous opinion of devotees of moving pictures of Wilmington, and also of the visiting clan, for that matter. And such is fully justified, when one comes to think of the many attractions and charms of the Bijou, including its delightfully comfortable nature, which never fails to make a hit this type of weather. The Bijou is freely and hygienically ventilated and is cooled by the most modern of electric fans, many of them, which are whirling about all the time. Then there is the daily big show, brand new each day, merry music, the popular theatre's unsurpassable seating arrangement, whereby a person never has to stand while another is passing, and, last but not least, the theatre's tiny price of admission, 5 cents. All these things tend to make it supremely popular and the premier amusement spot. Today a swell week-end bill will be offered and which, of course, will be witnessed by huge-sized audiences. Leading today's show is an especially fascinating and particularly powerful film, "The Haunted House." It is a Kalem film that is mysterious, weird, thrilling and yet decidedly pretty, as the story is a superb dramatic one.

There is also another topliner that deserves mention. It is the Vitagraph's "After the Honeymoon." It is a clever, refined, snappy comedy, that will cause roars of laughter and yet set forth a wholesome lesson. It tells of a young couple that can't agree, how they separate and are later re-united. It is a "peach."

The other features on today's programme are just as swell and up-to-date, and so today's big bill should not be missed.

COUNCILMAN WOOD ACTIVE.

Has Several Matters to Bring to Attention of the City Council.

Councilman Wood said yesterday that at the next meeting of the City Council he expected to introduce a resolution calling on the city attorney to look up the record as to the franchise now held by the Tidewater Power Company to use Water street with car tracks. The franchise was given to a predecessor of the Tidewater. The reason the investigation is to be made is because it has been stated that the car tracks on Water street, now used by the Atlantic Coast Line as part of the "dummy" line, are leased to the railroad by the Tidewater Power Company for an annual rental of $3,000. Councilman Wood takes the position that the Tidewater Power Company paid nothing for the franchise to occupy the street, therefore it is not fair and just to the city that it should continue to receive the revenue from the rental of the property. His idea is to have this rental paid to the city, if possible.

Another matter he expects to bring to the attention of Council is the need of a spur track from the A. C. L. tracks to the city property in the northeastern part of town, only a short distance, so that shipments of feedstuffs, etc., for the city, may be placed without extra cost instead of paying the Tidewater Power Company for hauling the cars over its line from the railroad as at present. He estimates that the spur track will save the city a snug little sum every year.

Councilman Wood proposes also to bring up the matter of electing a purchasing agent, as provided for in the amendment to the city charter. The duties of the purchasing agent are now being performed temporarily by the Mayor. The law provides that Council may designate the Mayor, one of its members or any other city official as purchasing agent. It is not improbable that the city clerk and treasurer will be made purchasing agent, Council providing extra compensation for him for this work. The purchasing agent will be in position to save the city considerable money in the purchase of supplies.

HIGHWAY TO GOLDSBORO

Chamber of Commerce Committee Wants Government Funds

A modern highway 85 miles long, connecting Wilmington and Goldsboro, is within the range of possibility, and good roads enthusiasts are giving time and thought to it. The special Chamber of Commerce committee composed of Messrs. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., chairman; A. B. Skelding, M. S. Willard and J. VanB. Metts, have addressed Governor Craig on the subject of securing one-half of the $40,000 the government is to spend in this State in a good roads demonstration. It seems to be generally understood that the $40,000 will be equally divided between the east and west, and if this proves true, it is argued that there is no better place to spend it than on this Goldsboro-Wilmington route. Of the 85 miles, about 35 is said to be built now, and that with this and pending bond issues, withal the government money money, it is thought the road can be built.

DECORATION DAY OBSERVED.

Colored People Held Exercises at the National Cemetery.

The colored people held services of an inspiring nature to them at the National Cemetery yesterday at 4 P. M., in observance of Decoration Day. They marched from Mabell Hall, on Campbell street, to Fifth, down Red Cross to Seventh, then to Market street and on to the cemetery. David Sasser was chief marshal. The Federal soldiers led, followed by the Uniform Ranks of the colored Pythians, the colored fire company and the cadets. The Third North Carolina band furnished music.

The oration was delivered by Rev. W. H. Moore, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist church, who pleased his hearers highly, closing with sound advice to the colored people. Shiloh Baptist church choir sang for the occasion. Rev. A. L. Price, of the Mt. Olive A. M. E. church, offered prayer, and Rev. A. Spiller, of the Central Baptist church, closed the exercises with the benediction. F. P. Pitman was master of ceremonies. The day passed quietly and the big crowd of colored people enjoyed it.

New Lumber Mill Likely

It is reported that a large lumber manufacturing company recently secured an option on a factory site on Smith's Creek. The option expired yesterday, it is said, and was promptly renewed for another 30 or 60 days. It is reported that the company proposes to locate here a large mill and that timber will be brought in here from a distance of 200 to 300 miles. If the mill is established employment will be given to a large number of hands.

DECLINE IN COTTON MARKET

Trading Quiet and Narrow Throughout the Week—The Depression Caused by Weather and Crop Reports.

New Orleans, May 30.—The net result of the week's trading in the cotton market was a decline of 12 to 21 points. The market was quiet and narrow the week through. The high prices were made on Tuesday and the low prices on Thursday. At the highest the trading months were unchanged to 2 points down compared with last week's closing at the lowest they were 15 to 23 points under last week's close. The range was 15 to 21 points.

The market was depressed chiefly by good weather and crop accounts. Much bearish talk was circulated regarding the pending report on the condition of the crop on May 25th, but, while estimates by private bureaus were as high as 85, compared with the ten-year average of 79.9, it cannot be said that any great amount of cotton was sold short on it.

The holidays in the American markets at the end of this week, and the beginning of next had the effect of restricting operations, and on the whole bears preferred to cover commitments rather than to enter into new ventures. Reports from the cotton belt indicated that the crop was making satisfactory progress as the result of recent rains and the somewhat higher temperatures. There was still some complaint, however, of low night temperatures. Moderate short selling from the interior was in evidence. Against this was equally moderate buying for long account, which bullishly inclined traders and brokers said was coming from spinners who were hedging against their future requirements.

In the spot department prices lost one-eighth of a cent, middling closing at 12 5-16 against 12 7-16 last week and 11 3-4 this week last year. Sales on the spot amounted to 1,168 bales against 2,742 last week, and 660 this week last year; sales to arrive amounted to 835 bales against 1,389 last week and 600 this week last year.

EXTREME DULLNESS PREVAILS

New Orleans Cotton Shows Weakness—No Official Weather Reports—Holiday in New York Markets

New Orleans, May 30.—Extreme dullness prevailed in the cotton market today. With New York closed and no official weather reports, because it was Decoration Day and double holidays following the close here there was little desire to trade, except to even up in preparation for the government's condition figures Monday morning. Private reports concerning the weather and the growing crop were bearish but they caused only moderate short selling.

On the opening the tone was steady and prices were 1 to 2 points up on good cables. The range throughout the session was only 3 or 4 points.

At the highest the trading months were 2 to 3 points over yesterday's close at the lowest they were unchanged to one point under. The close was at a net rise of one to three points. Private weather accounts indicated that very little rain fell over night in the cotton region and that temperatures were about seasonable. Some rain was promised in the forecast but the trade regards rains now and then beneficial. Crop reports, especially from the Western belt, could hardly have been better and pointed to a gain in condition since May 25th, the end of the period to be considered in the government's report.

Spot cotton quiet, unchanged. Middling 12 5-16. Sales on the spot 59 bales, to arrive 350.

Futures closed: January 12.20; March 11.28; June 11.84; July 11.92; August 11.51; September 11.32; October 11.18; December 11.7.

CLEWS' FINANCIAL REVIEW

Four Uncertainties Have Affected the Stock Market—Crop Outlook, However, is Satisfactory—Other Influences

New York, May 30.—There are four very important uncertainties, (1) the tariff question, (2) the currency problem, (3) the monetary situation and (4) the crop outlook, and until these begin to clear there is little chance for any substantial improvement in the stock market.

In addition to these uncertainties there are several other problems also of a restraining nature, such as the pressure of new issues, the attitude of the government towards the railroads, the Union and Southern Pacific dissolution plans and the continued warlike disturbances in Southeastern Europe.

So far as the tariff is concerned, it would seem as if this had been amply discounted. The worst possible was known several weeks ago, and the chances now that the extreme or most injurious cuts will be modified in the Senate, and that no serious harm will be done to any important industry. The proportion of damage would certainly be small compared with the nation's aggressive industries, and it must not be forgotten that lower tariff rates will have compensating advantages in other directions. As soon the bill is passed there will probably be a rush for orders, both domestic and foreign, to fill the gap in merchandise stocks caused by the hesitation of the last seven months.

So far as the currency problem is concerned, the outlook is fairly encouraging. The outline of new legislation are believed to provide for a central regional reserve, for an elastic currency, for government representation in the board and for rediscounting commercial paper as well as other features. There is a fair chance of such a bill being passed by the House as a party measure. Some doubt exists as to the Senate which may or may not delay the passage of a bill until next Winter. Mr. Wilson, however, is known to be anxious for prompt action during the session of Congress, if a satisfactory bill can be enacted. The greatest danger is that some unsound ideas, such as government control of the central reserve bank, government issue of notes or guarantee of deposits may be attempted by an influential minority, which are infected with absurd financial theories not accepted by any other civilized nation.

So far as the monetary situation is concerned, the outlook is more satisfactory, though one of caution. The home and foreign credit situations have not yet emerged from the condition of excessive strain brought on by prolonged trade activity and the Balkan war. Nevertheless, the good effects are already being seen o fthe policy of retrenchment which has been persistently followed in Europe and the United States for the past month or six weeks. Reserves are already beginning to rise at home and abroad as a result of this policy. In other words, the curative process is quietly progressing, but the outcome is not yet fully known. It remains to be seen if the liquidation and retrenchment recently enforced will expose any unexpectedly weak spots. Moreover, it is known that our banks are not yet in position to finance large crops and increased trade activity combined next Autumn. The pressure of new capital applications has been enormous the world over, and the comparative failure of recent issues and the high returns demandeded have checked the demand for new capital. New issues in this market during May are expected to reach about $150,000,000, against about $180,000,000 a year ago, and a number of urgent issues have been delayed until easier conditions prevail in the money market.

So far as the crop outlook is concerned, this is eminently satisfactory. It is the one bright and sustaining feature in a generally unsatisfactory situation. Another good harvest will do wonders toward general recuperation. There has been abundant rain in nearly all sections of the country this Spring, and nearly all the crops start well equipped to face drought or other vicissitudes during the remainder of the growing season. The harvest, however, is still about three months distant, and it would be premature to bank too confidently upon the outcome.

The dilemma of American railroads is still one that requires serious consideration. Our railroads are not getting fair play from the hands of the government. An enormous increase of expenses has been forced upon them by the demands of labor, but the heavy hand of the Inter-State Commerce Commission prevents them from securing the compensation which other industries have secured by passing on the burden to the buyer. The strong roads will be able to pull through emergencies, although their financial status has been somewhat weakened; but the situation for some of the weaker roads—St. Louis & San Francisco for example—will be really grave unless relief is forthcoming. The Union Pacific dissolution is still an important element of uncertainty in the market, and no recovery in the securities thus affected can be looked for until a solution is in sight.

For the reasons mentioned above, buyers are holding off. There is a quiet absorption of the better class of bonds, many of which are now selling at exceedingly attractive prices to conservative investors. The approach of the holidays also tended to restrict stock market operations. As soon as the tariff and currency questions are settled, we may look forward to a revival of activity, both in trade and on the Stock Exchange, and later on if the harvest fulfills present expectations and easier money develops the recovery will be still more pronounced and the present wave of gloom will disappear. HENRY CLEWS.

STORM IN NORFOLK

Number of Lives Are Reported Lost —Property Damage

Norfolk, Va., May 30.—Accompanied by rain and hail a cyclonic-like windstorm passed over this section this afternoon and a number of lives are reported lost. Twenty houses were blown down in Berkeley and South Norfolk but no lives were lost so far as known. Mrs. George Harper was seriously injured when her home in Holly avenue, was blown down and a number of others were hurt by falling timbers and flying glass.

Scores of small craft were turned over in the harbor during the storm and several are reported to have been carried to sea. The tug Katie Twohy, signalled a Bay Line steamer that a small sailing craft went down during the blow and several lives were lost.

The crew of the tug attempted to save the men on the ill-fated craft but were unsuccessful.

The big government wireless mast in the navy yard was completely wrecked and will be out of commission for at least a week. Until it is repaired government messages will be received on board the battleship Michigan now at the Norfolk navy yard. The roof and port "right" side of the house built on the receiving ship Franklin was blown away and liberty parties were countermanded until repairs were made. The Tunis Lumber Company, Greenleaf Johnson Lumber Company and Fosburgh Lumber Company all located on the Berkeley side of the Elizabeth river, sustained heavy losses. Big storage sheds, dust blowers and other buildings were demolished by the wind.

The city was in darkness for two hours and electric lights in public places went out while the storm was at its height. An audience gathered in one of the theatres sang songs in darkness while the orchestra played patriotic airs.

MAJ. LEON'S DIARY.

Interesting Story of Civil War Incidents and Events.

(Charlotte Observer.)

"The Diary of a Tar Heel Confederate Soldier", is the title of a book which needs no further explanation than the title would signify to make it a valuable contribution to the history of the Civil War. Mr. L. Leon, one of the best known Confederate veterans of Mecklenburg, is the author and the Stone Publishing Co., of East Trade street, this city, is the publisher.

"The Charlotte Greys," the very mention of whom brings up historic memories, will receive many pages in historic facts and the book will always be of value, locally on account of this and other well written bits of the war.

If there is any book of the Civil War which would be of interest it would seem that one of "A Tar Heel Confederate Soldier" would be one: first at Bethel, farthest at Gettysburg and last at Appomattox, and between Bethel and Appomattox a wealth of heritage possessed by no other race and no other State. There are too many things in the history of "A Tar Heel Confederate Soldier" to be forgotten; one does not easily forget that North Carolina put in more soldiers than did any other Southern State, that she put in 17,000 more soldiers than she had voters, that she formed the "backbone" of every brigade, corps or division in which her regiments were placed and that she holds the world's record for mortality in that immortal charge over the shell-swept and rugged fields of Gettysburg and that when the "end" had come and she had fired the last volley of the Civil War, as she had fired the first, Lee said as he rode from Appomattox with tears in his eyes and voice: "God bless Old North Carolina."

One does not easily forget these "facts," and told in the simple plain language of which Mr. Leon is capable, they will, it would seem, find a ready sale.

Jolly life in the camp, tiresome life on the march and the fleeting life in battle will be told with humor and pathos. It should hold and interest as well as instruct all who read it and add a unit to the library of any one worth the space.

Mr. Leon now lives in Wilmington, though he was a resident here for some time and was commander of Mecklenburg Camp for several terms. He is still familiarly known as "Commander Leon" by his comrades here. The proofs of the book, which have been read by a number of people here are said to be gems of value in both the local way as well as in the larger sense of the word.

Just as the diary of a general of the Civil War is of interest and worth, in that it shows the position of the bodies of troops at the various battles, the reasons why certain things were done, why battles were won or lost, just so will the book by Mr. Leon be of interest in that it will show how the things were done by the men who did them, and it will give the ideas of a private soldier regarding certain historic happenings. The feeling of the soldier under fire, acts of heroism and many other incidents of a lighter nature will be charmingly told and they will sink in and record history as the Tar Heel soldier saw it while in action in the world's most decisive war.

The introduction is also written by Mr. Leon, and his publishers are gratified no little with the demand which they have noted for the book and the calls that are already being received for the first copies available.

The book among other illustrations will show a full page likeness of Mr. Leon.

BURGAW HAPPENINGS.

First of Series of Spring Weddings. Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., May 29.—The first of the series of weddings to take place in Burgaw this Spring took place at the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Mr. Leon Henry, of Winnabow, led to the altar Miss Guilda Moore, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore, of Burgaw. The altar was banked with evergreens, concealing the organ at which Miss Lorena Bland sat, playing the wedding march, and just before the entry of the bridal party, Miss Addie Williams, of Duplin, sang "Because I Love You Truly." The only attendants were Mr. Henry, brother of the groom, best man, and Miss Ruth Williams, maid of honor. Little James Henry Moore was the ring bearer. Rev. P. L. Clark performed the ceremony, using the ring ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a beautiful creation of brocaded satin draped with crepe meteor and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore Nile green crepe de chine and carried pink carnations. A large crowd witnessed the ceremony and at the home of the bride a great many handsome presents were displayed. The couple left amid a shower of rice on the southbound train for Wilmington.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. E. T. Pullen gave a linen shower to Miss Mattie Paddison, at which a large number of friends were present and many handsome linen presents were made. Delightful refreshments were served. Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Johnson, Miss Sallie Herring gave a miscellaneous shower complimentary to Misses Mattie Paddison and Annie Dell Durham. Numerous presents of various kinds were received by the young brides-to-be. Refreshments were daintily served. Friday morning at the home of C. E. McCullen, Esq., Misses Mary Lou McCullen and Lorena Bland gave a novelty shower to Misses Lula Peele and Mattie Paddison. Here again the brides-to-be received a number of useful presents and the refreshments were dainty and refreshing.

Mr. A. H. Burr, of the Standard Supply Co., of Wilmington, was here Friday.——Dr. J. T. Hoggard, of Atkinson, passed through here Wednesday with his little daughter on his way to Norfolk.

An engine for the Burgaw Lumber Co., to use on its tram road has arrived and active operations at the mill will begin very soon. The company has stumpage sufficient to run the mill about five years, it is said.

Heavy rains early in the week were very welcome as the dry weather was retarding farming operations. As it is, cotton is late.

The two brick store building on Court House avenue are nearing completion. One will be occupied by the Burgaw Furniture Co., and it is not known who will occupy the other.

The Civic League has extended an invitation to Dr. Nesbitt, of Wilmington, to make an address during the coming week. This is looked forward to with much interest as Dr. Nesbitt is regarded here as an expert in his line and many valuable suggestions are expected from him in the way of improving health conditions in the town.

Mayor Hand has been indisposed for the past week with a carbuncle on the back of his neck. His friends hope to see him out again soon.

Rev. P. L. Clark will fill his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church here Sunday and at that time will be installed as pastor.

Ex-Sheriff A. C. Ward and Mr. Frank Johnson, two venerable citizens of Columbia township, were here Friday.

SET FIRE TO ACADEMY

Attempt Made to Burn Art Building in London

London, May 30.—An attempt was made tonight to set fire to the Royal Academy. Although the usual votes for women placards were not found, the police suspect militant suffragettes were responsible for the attempt to destroy the building in which are housed some of the world's greatest works of art.

Shortly after the exhibition closed for the night a watchman discovered in a small room on the ground floor a cardboard box filled with rags and cotton saturated with oil. A number of wax tapers were bound about the box. Four of these were burning when the watchman found the box, which had been so placed that the flames from it easily would have communicated with the walls.

The suffragettes resumed their campaign of destruction tonight in the Lewisham branch postoffice, which they had attacked several times previously. They set fire to the letters in the buildings and the flames were extinguished only after a number of them had been destroyed.

Bottles containing corrosive mixtures and addressed to Reginald McKenna, home secretary, were found today in a mail box.

Suffragette literature was found scattered near the scenes of these depredations. Automobile drivers and cyclists in the Doncaster districts made complaint today that tacks which punctured their tires were scattered over the highways.

MOTHER SO POORLY

Could Hardly Care for Children — Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bovina Center, N.Y.—"For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my two children. I doctored with several doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. WILLARD A. GRAHAM, Care of ELSWORTH TUTTLE, Bovina Center, N.Y.

Roswell, N. M., May 30.—The damage done so far by the grasshoppers in northeastern New Mexico has been restricted exclusively to the "dry claim" region around Elida, but there are no indications as to what destruction the hoppers may bring when they have developed wings, is the way Prof. A. G. Hammar, Government Entomologist here, described the situation. He based his observations on personal investigation of the hopper infested aren.

Sanford Express: "Twenty-six crates of dewberries were shipped by the berry growers of this county to New York by express Monday. We understand they realized 20 cents per quart for the shipment. This is considered a good price for the first. A carload of berries was shipped North last night and another car will go forward tomorrow. The growers will be busy gathering and shipping next week."
